SAG HARBOR NATIVE RELEASES NEW MYSTERY NOVEL

The novel features a cruise ship wedding, a murder, and a doomed romance.

DARIEN, CT, [JUNE 1, 2026] - Author Anna Dunworth has released a new mystery novel, Beyond the Sea, a fast-paced, exciting whodunnit set aboard a luxury cruise ship after a wedding turns deadly.

Joe Banks wakes the morning after his ex's wedding with the world's worst hangover. Not only is he struggling to remember most of the evening, but he's also the prime suspect in the bride's murder. Join Joe as he scrambles to clear his name before he is arrested for a crime that he's (fairly) certain he did not commit. Flashbacks throughout follow Joe and Ally from their first dance in the middle school cafeteria to her marriage to somebody else - a love story for those glass-half-empty people in the crowd.

"I wrote Beyond the Sea for readers who love a good mystery with a healthy dose of murky morality. It's fast-paced, easy to read, and filled with characters who exist in the gray spaces between good and bad, and right and wrong. It's a complexity that I love in literature for the way it mimics reality."

Published through Twisted Tide Press, Dunworth's own publishing company, Beyond the Sea is available now. The novel is the company's first CHAT BY CHAPTER book, with QR codes placed throughout the book to direct readers into a virtual book club where they can interact with others on the same page.

The collection is available in paperback through the Twisted Tide Press website (www.twistedtidepress.com) and through major online retailers. The eBook will be released this summer. Twisted Tide Press also has book club and bonus editions available for purchase.
