

The 2023-2024 Premier League (PL) 15th round Tottenham vs. West Ham match will be broadcast live exclusively on TV channel SPOTV ON and sports OTT service SPOTV NOW at 5:15 a.m. on the 8th.

Tottenham, who succeeded in turning the atmosphere around, challenges for victory at home. Tottenham, who are showing a strong performance by recording undefeated in four home games against West Ham in the league, have failed to record a clean sheet in five consecutive games due to defensive instability despite the recent performance of Vicario, who is in Yashin mode. Ahead of the game against West Ham, Tottenham is expected to relieve the burden on Vicario with the return of key defensive player Romero from his suspension. In addition, Lo Celso and Kulusevski, who are consistently given opportunities, are performing very well, and 'ace' Son Heung-min is still in good shape. A lot of expectations are being placed on whether 'Captain' Son Heung-min, who scored 3 goals in 3 games against West Ham, can lead Tottenham to victory again this time.

Meanwhile, West Ham plans to throw cold water on Tottenham, which is trying to rebound. West Ham meets Tottenham while on the rise with an undefeated record in three league games. Attention is being paid to whether West Ham, led by Jarod Bowen, who is good at quick feet, dribbling and shooting, and Ward-Prowse, a 'dead ball specialist', will be able to score a point against Tottenham, whose defense is unstable.

With much attention focused on the match between Tottenham, who is aiming for victory in 5 games, and West Ham, who are undefeated, the PL 15R Tottenham vs. West Ham match, which kicks off, will be broadcast on TV channel SPOTV ON at 5:15 a.m. on the 8th. It can be found on the sports OTT service SPOTV NOW.
