@ajsbth [prod. ???] (#11/outro)

It was a sunday afternoon
Maybe around 11 or so, that I was made known
I got a notification, no hesitation, I opened it right up Curious to what it could contain
Then it shocked me, rocked me to my core
I could finally be, a part of the songwars

I watched all friends get in
But goddamn never me
And maybe this time it wouldn't be a repeat of history
Listen to me, I'll even make my case
Getting tagged, notifications are all over the place

Im a potential match for somebody I know
Prod Musa
My destinys up to you
And then I find out
You didn't pick me
Well heres what I have to say to you

Prod Musa
I hate your fucking guts

You probably didnt know who I was and thats why you passed it up
You probably didnt take the time, to find out who I am
Guess its your loss
But goddamit

Im like a kid again always the last pick
God im sick of this dumb shit
Just wanna be somebodys choice
And for that musa I hope you lose
If I could choose I'd get you out im the first round
Matter of fact, imma rig the fucking votes

Oh Musa, you coulda picked me </3
We would've went down as the best duo in history
The songwars wouldnt believe
What they'd hear
But its to late now musa the options disappeared cause you picked someone else
picked someone else
picked someone else
