What were people curious about in 2020? Learning still matters!

Let's warm up and reflect on 2020 by exploring what we searched for in 2020. Watch Google — Year in Search 2020 and explore the 2020 Google Trends Site for a deeper dive into the questions people asked in 2020.

Reflect

What Should We Remember From 2020?

1. Take a moment to reflect on your personal 2020? Not a perfect year, but will we learn from it? What went well? What could have been better?
2. Explore significant events and stories from one of these resources.
   - The Year in Pictures (New York Times)
   - 2019: The year in pictures (CNN)
   - Hopeful Images from 2020 (Atlantic)
3. Open the 2020 Year in Review Slide Deck for your Period in Google Classroom. Claim a slide by adding your name. Create a visual review of important moments that you will remember from 2020 on your slide.
4. When you've finished your slide, take some time to explore the other slides. What is similar? What is different?

It is important to always remember that we have different perspectives on the world!

Who Do You Want to Be for 2021?

1. Create a Google Keep Note and Brainstorm who you want to be in 2021. What are your goals and aspirations?
2. Instead of New Year's Resolutions, many people choose one word to guide them each year. Based on your goals and aspirations, what is your one word for 2021?
3. Create an avatar or a meme that represents who you want to be using one of the resources in this Avatar Creation Resources Document or in this Meme Creation Resources Document. The graphic should be a public representation of who you want to be in 2021?
4. Share your avatar in this Padlet and explain how your image is connected to your one word.

How Are You Motivated or Inspired?

1. Review your Google Keep Brainstorm and then find a TikTok, YouTube, or other trending video from 2020 that could help someone become who they want to be in 2021. You can also create your own video using Adobe Spark.
2. Share your video in this Padlet. Include a brief description explaining why you chose this video?

Sense of Space

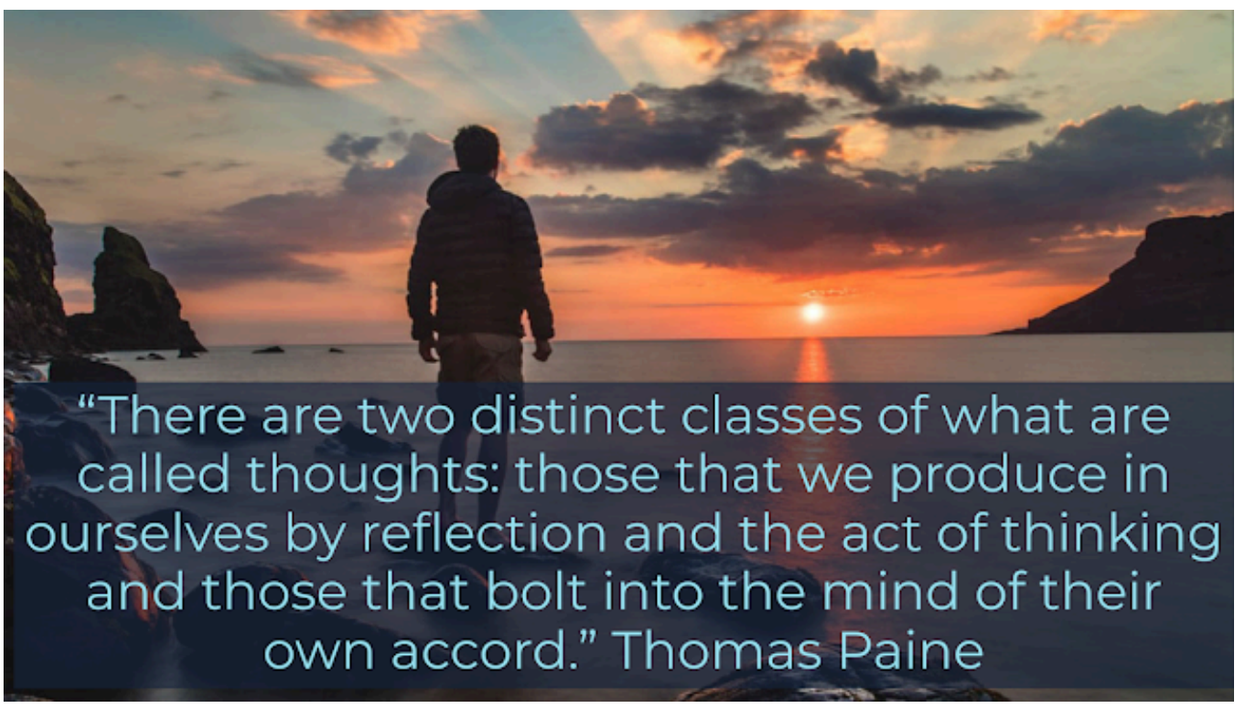

How Are You Connected to the World?

1. What do you know about the world we share? Explore what you know about the world by completing one or more of the Google Earth Quizzes. Go to Google Earth and click on the Voyager Symbol. Then click on "Games" and choose one of the quizzes that catch your interest.
2. Share how you scored with your table. Reflect on how well you think you know our world?
3. Return to Google Earth and click on the Voyager Symbol. Explore the categories and then complete a Voyage that you are curious about.
4. Share your Google Earth learning in this Padlet
5. Answer the Connected World question in Google Classroom. (How was the Voyage similar or different to your current place on our planet?)
