

Academic Resource Center (ARC) Resources

By: Academics Chairperson, Abigail Obra

Tutoring	Information: • Free to all UCR students • Walk-in and appointment-based • Offered in person and online Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/tap
Supplemental Instruction (SI)	Information: • Group study led by previous students of commonly taken courses like Math 5A and Chem8A • Regularly scheduled • Mostly structured with certain professors teaching during current quarter • Open-SI and Learning Community-SI Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/si
R' Success Workshop Series	Information: • First come, first serve • Study skills workshop • Led by peer mentors and professional staff • Provided every weekday, multiple times in a day, with a new topic every day Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/rsuccess
Assistance, Coaching, and Encouragement (ACE)	Information: • Provides guidance towards academic skills and study goals short and long term • Led by a peer mentor that is picked through an intake assessment where you will be paired with someone with similar goals and interests Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/ace
Writing & Reading Support	Information: • 1 on 1 consultations OR workshops • Led by undergraduate tutors from several different majors • Provides writing, grammar, reading, and formatting workshops • Have to schedule an appointment Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/writing

Early Assist	Information: • Support for 1st years in CNAS and BCOE, those who have placed in ARC 35 • Led by a peer mentor (CNAS/BCOE student) who has excelled at math • Regular meetings with your peer mentor each quarter Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/early-assist
Transfer Success Program	Information: • Support programs for transfer students (new and present) • Provides campus-wide partners that empower their students to excel academically, professionally, and personally Link: https://arc.ucr.edu/tsp