

Kindergarten Weekly Update

Week of
September 14, 2020

*Special notes:

Don't forget, Flex Wednesdays will include a LIVE meeting from 8am-8:15am. This will also have a video of Ms. Nolan, our librarian, reading a book.

We will begin assessing students using iReady Reading. Please see the letter from the district.

Check out what we've been learning!

Reading

Readers are continuing to learn about how words and pictures match!

Word Study

We have learned the letters and sounds for t, b, f. Next week we will learn n and m.

Math

Mathematicians are learning about the differences between math tools and toys.

Writing

Writers are learning about pictures and words matching. Even if it's only a letter, it's still writing!

Social Studies

We continue to learn about how individuals are similar and different.

Science

Scientists are noticing how things move.

Important Dates

- September 9, 16, 23, 30: Flex Wednesdays (now with 8am meeting)
- September 15th: Jersey Mike's Benefit Night at Chapel Hill North

Wish List

Nothing at this time. Thank you for all you support getting your student connected for virtual learning!
