Week Eight Overview + Course Materials

This week we will cover Ethics for interns. There is a reflection assignment which asks you to apply ethical standards to case studies.

In class we will have another live presentation via Zoom–this one from the local chapter of the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill. This presentation will be

Tuesday

May 23rd

3-4pm

Via Zoom

If you attend the live presentation, you will receive 10 extra credit points. The presentation will be recorded and available in Moodle. This week's forum is based on this presentation.

Learning Objectives for this week:

- Illustrate connections between professional ethics and day to day practice.
- Describe common ethical dilemmas seen in fieldwork settings.
- Create a plan to address ethical challenges as they arise.

Materials for Week Eight

- Chapter 7 Considering Equity and Ethical Issues from from Human Services Practicum: An Equity Lens
- Ethical Standards for the National Organization of Human Services [Website]: Human service professionals use these standards for ethical decision making.
- Mental Health and Addiction Certification Board of Oregon (MHACBO) Behavioral Health Code of Conduct [Online PDF]: This code of conduct binds members of Oregon's behavioral health workforce who register with the MHACBO.

"Week Eight Overview + Course Materials" by Yvonne Smith for Open Oregon Educational Resources is licensed CC BY 4.0.

- NAMI Clackamas Internship Information Sheet [Online PDF]: This document lists service areas of interest for potential NAMI Clackamas interns.

“Week Eight Overview + Course Materials” by Yvonne Smith for Open Oregon Educational Resources is licensed CC BY 4.0.