

Identify the key issues raised in Jack No Name. Indicate your stance on these issues and give reasons why you took this stance (relate them to your own experiences.)

| Key issue              | My stance on the issue | Reason for my stance |
|------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|
| Kindness               |                        |                      |
| Corporal punishment    |                        |                      |
| Looking after the poor |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |
|                        |                        |                      |