Professional Development/Training Opportunities

- Crisis Management and De-escalation - Register Here
  - Friday, May 3rd, 9am-11am
  - Youth become extremely overwhelmed or experience sensory overload, can lose control over their emotions and behaviors. These situations can be potentially dangerous for both the youth, provider, and community. This training provides an opportunity to increase your knowledge of developmentally relevant, culturally responsive tools to effectively address these challenges and support safety.
