

Welcome New Wayne-Westland Community Schools Administrators

As we begin the 2022-23 school year, we are pleased to announce the following administrators who have joined our team.

Cory Gildersleeve, principal of Wayne Memorial High School

Mr. Gildersleeve has a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Central Michigan University, a Masters of Education degree from Marygrove College, and a Specialist degree in Educational Leadership from Eastern Michigan University. Mr. Gildersleeve has experience in College and Career Readiness, Dual Enrollment, Early Middle College, Restorative Practices and Upward Bound and most recently served as principal at Ypsilanti High School.

Dr. Alex Ofili, Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources

Dr. Ofili has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education from the University of Michigan, a Masters of Arts degree in k-12 Administration from Eastern Michigan University, a Specialist of Arts degree in K-12 Administration from Eastern Michigan University, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Eastern Michigan University. Dr. Ofili has also completed The Art of Leadership Institute at Harvard University Graduate School of Education and the Certified Human Resource Specialist Program with Michigan State University. He was most recently an elementary principal in Novi Community Schools.

Kim Pawlukiewicz, Director of State and Federal Grants

Ms. Pawlukiewicz has a Bachelor of Science degree from Central Michigan University in Secondary Education & English/Business Education, a Masters of Education degree in Principalship from Saginaw Valley State and an Education Specialist degree in Curriculum Director from Saginaw Valley State. She has worked as a high school assistant principal, principal, Director of Academic Services and most recently as the Superintendent of Warren Fitzgerald Public Schools.

David Raft, Executive Director of 9-12 Curriculum and Instruction

Mr. Raft has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education from Eastern Michigan University, a Masters of Science degree in Educational Leadership from Eastern Michigan University, and a Masters of Arts degree in Educational Technology from Michigan State University. Mr. Raft has spent his career at Saline Area Schools as a teacher, athletic director, elementary principal, middle school principal and high school principal. He was most recently the Principal of Operations at Saline Area Schools.

Amanda Rawsky, Assistant Principal of Wayne Memorial High School

Ms. Rawsky has a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Science/ Arts Group from Eastern Michigan University and a Master of Arts degree in Educational Leadership from Eastern Michigan University. She has spent her career in Ypsilanti Public Schools as a high school and elementary school teacher, department head of Student Support

Services and most recently as assistant principal/ Supervisor of Student Support Services.

Nancy Schulz, Director of School Improvement & Professional Development

Ms. Rydzewski has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education/ History and Geography from Michigan State University and a Masters of Education degree in Curriculum and Teaching from Michigan State University. She was a classroom teacher, reading interventionist, principal, and curriculum supervisor in Southfield Public Schools and, most recently, a virtual teacher for Wayne-Westland Community Schools.

