

BEVERLY HIGH SCHOOL

Enrolling approximately 1300 students, Beverly High School offers a variety of programs for its diverse student body, almost ninety-five percent of whom go on to two or four year colleges. Those programs include 17 Advanced Placement courses, 4 world languages, 6 science laboratories, and numerous fine arts courses. Complementing the classroom curriculum are many co-curricular and extracurricular activities. Beverly is proud of its strong high school academic program and its widely celebrated fine arts program, its athletic teams, and its award-winning student publications. Beverly High School values the various student organizations that foster leadership, service, and social awareness among its student body.

THE COMMUNITY

The late John Updike, one of Beverly's best-known residents, said, "Beverly is a town with something for everyone. If you can't be happy in Beverly, you're not trying." Located on the North Shore of Massachusetts about 26 miles from Boston, Beverly, called the Garden City, is a residential and industrial community covering fifteen square miles with a wealth of natural beauty and resources, including nine miles of coastline. Beverly provides easy access to Route 128, five commuter rail stations, a municipal golf course, an airport and an excellent school system. Two colleges and a hospital are located in Beverly as well as several theaters that offer live performances. The city has a strong partnership with businesses and the arts and a thriving downtown. Over 40,000 residents make Beverly their home.
