

Privacy Policy for RemindMe

RemindMe is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and disclose information when you use our Chrome extension.

Information We Collect

- Usage Data: We may collect information about how you use the extension, such as the websites you visit and the features you use.
- Extension Settings: We may collect information about your settings and preferences within the extension.
- Device Information: We may collect information about the device you use to access the extension, such as device type, operating system, and browser type.

How We Use Your Information

- We use the information we collect to improve and optimize the performance of the extension.
- We may use the information to provide personalized content and recommendations.
- We may use the information to detect, prevent, and address technical issues.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

- We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer your personal information to third parties.
- We may share non-personal information with trusted third-party service providers to assist us in operating and maintaining the extension.
- We may disclose your information in response to a legal request if we believe it is necessary to comply with applicable laws or regulations.

Data Retention

- We retain the information we collect for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

Your Choices

- You can disable or restrict the collection of certain information by adjusting your browser settings or extension preferences.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our Privacy Policy or the practices of our Chrome extension, please contact us at [contact@example.com].

Please note that this is a simplified privacy policy template, and you may need to customize it based on the specific features and functionalities of your Chrome extension. Additionally, it's recommended to seek legal advice to ensure compliance with applicable privacy laws and regulations.
