

Chapters 10, 11, 12

I. Fill in the blank.

- _____1. Of the ten Boom family, he is the first to die after being arrested.
- _____2. Because she has four of these, Corrie risks being put on Kalte Kost and having her sentence doubled.
- _____3. What Kalte Kost means.
- _____4. Where Corrie is placed after she has been declared contagious to the other prisoners.
- _____5. The one structural difference which Corrie likes between Corrie's first and second cell .
- _____6. He keeps Corrie company while she is sick, despite the fact he is an animal.
- _____7. On what "special day" do the prisoner's shout down the halls about other prisoners without fear of the guards.
- _____8. Where does Corrie find the secret message about the Jews who were in the secret room?
- _____9. At what event does Corrie become reunited with Nollie & Flip, Willem & Tine, and Betsie in Lieutenant Rahms' office?
- _____10. Who has made a more pleasant home out of her prison cell by stacking up the mattresses and decorating the window, etc.?
- _____11. Who has jaundice?
- _____12. Who shows interest in Corrie's family and her God? He also lets her walk on the mat.
- _____13. What was it that Jan Vogel did to the ten Booms?
- _____14. Why does Corrie make such a good factory worker at Vught?
- _____15. Where does Corrie end up at the end of Chapter 12?

II. Quotations. Write the page number and paragraph where you find the following excerpts from The Hiding Place. Then identify the speaker, the meaning, and the context (what's going on when the excerpt is spoken) of each of the following quotations.

1. "March 9, 1944 Father. Released."

2. "'O yes, Corrie! Terribly! I've felt for him ever since I knew--and pray for him whenever his name comes into my mind. How dreadfully he must be suffering!'"

3. "I felt like a student who has crammed for a difficult exam and then is tested on only the most elementary material."

4. "Betsie and I stared disbelievingly at the sheets of paper in our hands. Free? Free to leave--free to go home? Others crowded around, congratulating us, embracing us. The women from Betsie's cell at Scheveningen wept unabashedly. How cruel to have to leave all these behind!"