Privacy Policy & Terms of use

We're all about keeping things simple and respecting your privacy. Here's our no-nonsense privacy policy in plain language.

1. We Don't Collect Your Data

Guess what? We don't collect any of your personal information. Seriously, zero, zilch, nada. We're not into that stuff.

2. No Tracking, No Kidding

We don't track what you do in our app. We believe in trust, and we trust you to use our app without feeling like someone's watching over your shoulder.

3. Just Enjoy the App

Our main goal is to provide you with a cool app experience. We're not in the business of sharing or selling your data to anyone. Your data are ONLY stored within the app and not shared anywhere else.

4. Changes? Not Often, But Maybe

We're a small indie team, so we don't mess with our privacy policy too often. But if we do, we'll let you know right here.

5. Questions? Get in touch

Got questions or just want to say hi? Feel free to reach out to us. We're always happy to hear from fellow indie app lovers.
