This document covers topics such as (but not limited to) grooming, pedophilia, harassment, and manipulation. Reader discretion is advised.

Grant's primary account is: pimecome_5568 <@849098438221496340>

HOW TO ACCESS LOGS:

On the main GitHub repository, you must download the .zip archive containing all HTML files, since GitHub doesn't have official HTML viewing support. From there, all you need to do is run it as a normal file.

DO NOT RUN IT IN NOTEPAD, THAT WILL NOT WORK!

If it asks you to run it in a Web Browser, do that. It should have Discord's message formatting and you should be able to see all messages in that channel in chronological order. It is recommended you scroll to the bottom of the channel to view the most recent evidence.

Exceptions include any message that was deleted, edited, or in any way altered (i.e. an embed breaking) as the logging tool I used does not log any changes to a message, only the current state of the message when the channels were logged.

This document was created with the intent of bringing light to Grant's external actions, outside of general harassment and OC stealing. You can view the original document here:

I do not condone the harassment of anybody mentioned in this document whatsoever. You can interview them if you get permission from them, but don't do anything against their will.

Grant the Ant. 🧱 (or Grant the Groomer honestly)

Introductions:

I would like to start this document by stating where I personally know Grant from. I first met him in the Multiplayer Piano community around when I joined, being October 2020. He was known for "crashing the site" which was actually done by another member, he just claims he did it because he thinks it makes him look cool. You will see this a lot in his behavior, since he has an original character stealing compulsion.

I never really noticed anything sexual with him during his time on MPP other than what other people have told me, and according to them he'd ask out random people and when he doesn't get his way he throws a temper tantrum. He's banned from anything to do with most MPP communities anyway, the only place you'd really find him is on Someone8448's MPP fork (mpp.8448.space)* or other Sonic communities.

* no longer maintained.

Who even is "Grant"?:

Grant is an autistic 20 year old man that has really weird sexual fantasies over cartoon characters, young black teens, and also has a compulsion for making people's lives a living nightmare. He's known to freak out publicly online, such as making alternate accounts to 'impersonate' people or straight up harassing them, specifically on Bluesky or Discord.

He's been grooming this 23 year old named Aoz0ra. Aoz0ra is also someone who has autism and is also a plural system named "The Free Spirits" (unconfirmed if they're professionally diagnosed with anything or not) and Grant knows this.

He is also someone I've known about for a semi-decent long time, not closely, but I've known about him. Over the years that I have known about him, he's been a really... weird individual. A lot of the time, I would see him fantasize about Skye from Paw Patrol, Coco Bandicoot, and sometimes Cream the Rabbit (WHO IS CANONICALLY 6 YEARS OLD.)

Biographical overview
Age	6 ^[1]

This, of course, was all before I knew anything about Aoz0ra.

How I even found out:

v (invites were literally on when I joined)

Someone leaked an invite into their "private" Discord server where he and another person, Aoz0ra, would do roleplays. A lot of the time, it was just playing around with characters, notably from the Sonic and Crash Bandicoot franchises, along with Zootopia characters, and their own OCs. I never knew that he mainly used Discord until I joined the server, where I'd find several channels dedicated to roleplay.

On many occasions, he'd actually been banned from their server, mainly due to doing something stupid in roleplay that upset Aoz0ra. Of course, he'd manipulate his way back into being "with her" (if you can even really call it dating) and back into doing role-plays with her.

Nothing out of the ordinary from this point, just them doing role-plays with characters that they make. At some point, Aoz0ra gave me moderator permissions in her server which granted me access to formally deal with Grant, when Aoz0ra wasn't able to.

Characters:

On the topic of characters, they're pretty... weird. A lot of the time, Aoz0ra makes the characters' personalities, and Grant grabs an image (presumably) from Pinterest and a lot of the time they're (specifically black) children to teens. One of the characters literally looks like they're 4.

No, really, this is a reference image I grabbed from that server. It's fucking disgusting.

Don't get me wrong, he's not the one generating these images, (I hope), which doesn't excuse the fact that he had to actively seek this form of content out in order to find it

Other times, they're overly-sexualized characters in the Sonic or Crash Bandicoot artstyle. Like, very over-sexualized.

Allegedly, he was making Aoz0ra roleplay as one of their characters, Piper Love, which he acknowledges to be 16. Weird, considering - again - he is 20.

I wonder... if any other girls will let me do this...
but I don't want to break it [Continues tickling her]

PLUS IT'S A RP

Grant, just because it's a 'roleplay' does not change the fact that you think of kids when you do it.

His "Brother":

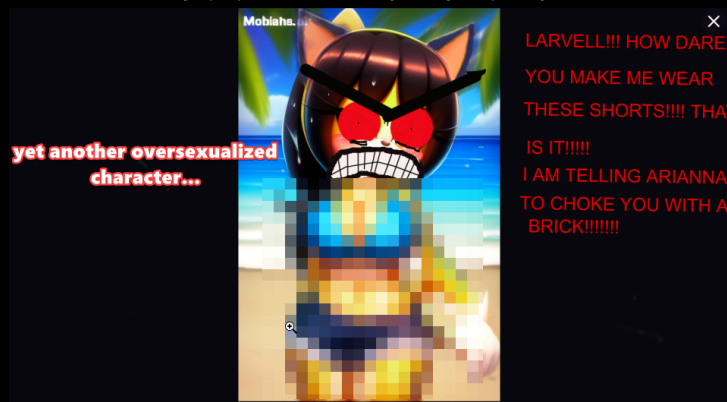

Grant likes to claim that he has brothers that go on his computer and incur bad things in roleplay, like beating people up or something. Aoz0ra gets upset over this and punishes Grant by warning him or just banning him from the server entirely. He also sets up Discord accounts as said people, typically named either Blake, Mitch, Brian, some typical American name.

These can be easily debunked by the fact that said “brothers” know a lot about how Grant roleplay(s) with Aoz0ra, and also given by the fact that they type relatively similar to one another. Apparently, Grant’s brother, Blake, is 14, which is weird because, why would he know that Grant does ERP? Does he tell him?

The “Evil” characters:

Whenever Grant gets upset, his first instinct isn’t to try and talk about his feelings, no, that wouldn’t be like him at all. Instead, his first choice is to take an image of one of the characters he’s roleplaying with/as, open a drawing program, and draw a really angry face on said character, typically subsided with text saying “THAT’S IT, I’M GONNA CHOKE YOU WITH A BRICK! AND MAKE ARIANNA BREAK UP WITH YOU!!” ...something along those lines. These characters can be used to incur “bad things” in roleplay, or to just make Grant feel... worse..? The things people do to avoid getting help, I guess.

Erotic Roleplay:

This segment gets into gross detail about things he does in roleplay. If you don't want to see this segment, that's okay, but be aware that you'd be missing out on a huge chunk of evidence here.

The way Grant does this is 'unique' in a way that makes it seem like he's forcing Aoz0ra to do things she doesn't want to do. A lot of the time, it's him doing something like, [Makes x love on me] or [Makes her do xyz].

Example:

Aoz0ra / Shadow-chan

3/20/2025 4:03 PM

Arianna Love: Yeah...~

Grant: / (Loves to make friends)

It's gonna take about 7 months

[his dick slowly shrinks & gets off of her]

jeeesus christ... 🤔

Another thing he likes to claim when brought up to him is that him having ERP with characters he knows are under 18 is that, it's "just an rp." While you may think this way, Grant, it's still pretty fucked up, and I'm pretty sure illegal too. Given he lives in Florida, as he's stated before and also tracks to his IP, the age of consent there is 18. He's doing what would be considered to be statutory rape. He also claims it's 'okay' because said character "had a crush on him." If you knew any better, you'd say no, and that it'd be wrong to be with someone that isn't of age. Mind you, Grant is 20. Almost old enough to drink. And the characters that he's doing this with are just starting to learn to drive. They. Are. Children.

The argument about “they aren’t real” isn’t valid here either, since Grant would most likely do this to someone if they “had a crush on him” (kind of hard to get to that point) and they were 16. The word choice being “No not really” highlights that he’s truly thought about doing that to a real person.

Update log 2

Grant has gone on Multiplayer Piano (.net) and tried to slander my name with things he himself has done.

CHAT DEV Room 19aba72c09f549fb6eb3b121 Anonymous : How long for the friendship with the individual & when did this happened?: And i'm afraid to say this even though, When my ex (Aoz0ra) who've I known for 3 years made this CLEAR, And i've been notified that I found out that it was 2sola's (Suspect) is responsible making the last troll accounts that were suspended on "Blue Sky /Twitter"... That he kept harassing my ex's friends non-stop, causing the doc to have more his evidences to make people hate me more... & refused to give up from being caught from

I don't own any other Bluesky accounts other than 2sola.bsky.social, so his claim of me making "alt accounts" to harass him are false. I haven't used Bluesky since he stopped contacting both me and Aoz0ra, although I'm not sure if he actually did stop contacting her.

He is also attempting to use people I know IRL to 'paint me as the bad guy' when in reality, nobody forced him to do anything. He has DMed two of the people I know irl, with bogus screenshots of "edits" I made to mess with him. Sure, immature behavior on my part, but what part of that has to do with "terrorizing and harassing him"?

Update log 3

He is actively slandering my name, saying that I use "webhooks" to hack people's Discord accounts. Webhooks do not interact with user's accounts in any way.
