July 9, Thursday 4:00pm - 8pm

Waldschenke Biergarten (Heiligenberg )

Heiligenberg, which is the mountain on the north side of the Neckar, is arguably the most historically interesting spot in Heidelberg. Take a self-guided tour of the Amphitheater and ruins of St. Michael's monastery, which began in 1023 and was abandoned in the 16th century. Includes buffet dinner and cash bar at the Waldschenke Biergarten. The first set of buses depart the Hilton at 3:30pm For the return, you can take the bus or you can walk down the mountain via the famous Philosopher's Way. It will take roughly 1 hour to reach the Hilton if you walk. Auf dem Heiligenberg 1, 69121 Heidelberg.

July 10, Friday, 10:30am - 12:30pm

Rohrbach Museum - FULL

OPTIONAL & FREE. Visit the Rohrbach Museum and then go on a short walking tour of the wine village of Rohrbach. Led by Christian Praesent.

---

July 10, Friday 2:45pm - 4:45pm

Mark Twain Center (almost full)

This is a wonderful opportunity to visit the old Headquarters area and see this new cultural center. The central objective of the Mark Twain Center for Transatlantic Relations is to combine exploration of the past with cultural and academic perspectives and to promote German-American dialogue around important issues for the future. The Center's activities are intended to keep the memory of the American presence in Heidelberg alive and to strengthen transatlantic dialogue. The MTC is a place of exchange and encourages collaboration with academic institutions, as well as with German-American organizations and associations involved in cooperation at local, national and international level. While this is optional, someone from the Alumni Association will be there along with MTC management. Located at the Keyes Building in what used to be Campbell Barracks. It's an easy walk to the school for the Friday evening event. Römerstraße 162, 69126 Heidelberg

---

July 10, Friday 5pm - 10pm

Julius-Springer-Schule (HHS)

Meet at the Julius-Springer-Schule (our old high school), have some German food and drink (cash bar), get reacquainted with old friends, and tour the renovated school. Bring your yearbooks, photos, and letter jacket if you have one. Group photos will be taken in the gym. Mark-Twain-Straße 1, 69126 Heidelberg, See the Transportation Guide here for directions.

---

July 11, Saturday 9:00am - 2:15pm
