I. THE BACKGROUND OF THE CONFERENCE

In 1967, a group of young people, having enjoyed their experiences in State Youth in Government Programs, determined that the experience could be broadened to a more meaningful level by participation in a conference dealing with matters of national and international concern. As a result of their idea and the work that followed, the first YMCA Youth Conference on National Affairs had its small beginning in 1968 at Stone Mountain, Georgia. The conference direction was established by the tremendous attitudes of the youth involved the first year and made it possible for subsequent conferences to be improved and strengthened. Since the first conference in the summer of 1968, with 8 states and 80 students, the number of delegations participating has grown to almost 40 states with over 600 students.

The Conference on National Affairs brings together students from State Youth and Government programs for a week of intensive debate and to propose and discuss well defined and accurate solutions to society's challenging needs.

A. Purpose of the Conference

1. To increase awareness of national and international concerns and issues.
2. To grow in confidence in each delegate's voice and impact on the world around them.
3. To increase understanding of people from all backgrounds and regions of the country.
4. To develop increased understanding of needs, responsibilities, and opportunities of young people.
5. To work creatively together with other youths in proposing solutions to real issues facing young people.
6. To be challenged in a safe space for personal growth.
7. To help youth and adults to better understand and strengthen their values for living through the Christian objectives of the YMCA.

This program offers opportunities for a young person to do research in the area of national and international concerns; to organize this information into a document proposal; to engage in intensive discussion and debate these proposals with outstanding young people from other states.

Adults and young people who have participated in the YMCA Conference on National Affairs are unanimous in their belief that the experience makes a real, vital contribution to helping young people grow into impactful and engaged citizens.

- B. It is important to keep in mind that this is a CONFERENCE and not a legislative session. The major working objective is to prepare and consider in depth proposals relating to crucial national and international concerns. The use of technical motions and restrictive parliamentary procedure will be discouraged.
- C. The Conference Planning Committee (CPC) is composed of advisors who are selected by the Director of the conference.

II. DELEGATION SELECTION

The delegates are selected from individual state Youth and Government Programs. Each year, the CPC will determine the maximum number of delegates that any one state may send to the conference. States not having a Youth and Government program but desiring to take part may apply directly to the Conference Director. All delegations must have at least one advisor. Delegations are required to bring one adult for every 10 delegates attending.

A. Qualification

Each young person desiring to participate in the YMCA Conference on National Affairs must have participated in their state YMCA Youth and Government program (if one exists) and must prepare a written proposal on a matter of national or international concern. (Conference Media delegates do not need to prepare a proposal). The proposal must not exceed two pages, which equals approximately 60 lines of text or 1000 words and must be submitted to the conference director by the appropriate deadline.

B. Pledge of Responsibility

Each person who attends the Conference (delegates and adults) pledges to devote their time and energies toward the goal of the Conference, to abide by the rules and Core Values of the YMCA (caring, honesty, respect, responsibility), and to do everything possible to ensure that the Conference is an inclusive and accepting space for all peoples.

III. PROPOSALS

Each delegate participating in the Conference is required to write a proposal or be a member of the media team. Proposals focus on solutions to problems and issues of importance to our nation. They may be national or international in scope. Each delegate within a State must clear their proposal topic with the State Director. It is mandatory that each delegate within each State write on a different topic. This will mean that a state with 12 delegates will have 12 different topics. However, some or all of these topics may be duplicated by delegates from other states.

IV. COMMITTEE HEARING GROUPS

A. Selection of Committee Chairpersons

1. State delegations with 8 or more delegates may submit the names of up to four delegates to the Conference Director for possible selection as Committee Chairpersons.
2. State delegations with fewer than 8 delegates may submit the name of one delegate for possible selection as Committee Chairperson.
3. The Conference Director will appoint Committee Chairpersons, from names submitted by each state director.
4. Each Chairperson is required to study their responsibilities in advance and to review the procedures of the committee as they appear in this Mountain Manual and related materials.
5. Chairpersons shall meet with the Presiding Officers before and at the beginning of the Conference to receive training in committee procedures.
6. Chairpersons not attending training will be replaced.
7. A webinar and/or other online material will be provided to chairs prior to the arrival to the conference.

8. Two Chairs will be assigned to Committee A & B and will alternate between presiding and clerking.

B. Adult Committee Advisors

One adult advisor designated by the Conference shall be in attendance during each committee session. This advisor shall serve as a liaison between the committee and the conference staff.

C. Committee A

1. The purpose of Committee A is to study and discuss each proposal assigned to the committee, to make any amendments deemed necessary by the majority and to rate each proposal.

 - b. Committee A will discuss proposals that are similar in topic.
2. Each Committee A will have two chairs who are selected by the Conference Director and alternate between presiding and clerking. The co-chair clerking shall keep time, assist the presiding co-chair with paperwork, and serve in the presiding co-chairperson's absence. The co-chair clerking is allowed to ask technical questions and debate.
3. Preliminary Session – There will be a mandatory Preliminary Session. The first 30 minutes is reserved for applicable proposals to be combined, and any remaining time for the rules to be explained, finalizing the agenda, and answering delegates' questions.
4. It is recommended, but optional, that authors dealing with identical topics combine proposals. Combination of similar proposals occurs only during the first 30 minutes of the Preliminary Session.
5. Once a proposal is combined then the combined authors will have one combined sheet for ranking that they must agree upon. If their proposal fails to advance then they will resume having individual ranking sheets in the next committee. For all parliamentary motions and proposals in Plenary/General Assembly that are not their own proposal, they will retain their individual vote.
6. Combination of proposals from different Committee A's must be approved by the Conference Director. Combination of proposals after the first 30 minutes of the Preliminary Session is not permitted.
7. During Committee A, time will be divided equally among the proposals for debate and ranking. The above time allotments must include sufficient time to rank proposals at the conclusion of each proposal presentation. Time allotments may be adjusted by a Co-Chair to fit the committee's needs.
8. The order in which proposals shall be heard will be determined at random. This order shall not be determined by proposal number.
9. The committee will follow a Pro/Con debate format. The presiding co-chair shall seek a delegate to speak pro or con, depending on which speech is eligible for recognition. If no delegate seeks recognition, the presiding co-chair may skip that speech and seek recognition for the next. However, they must return to the pro/con format. The presiding co-chair may end on a Pro speaker before recognizing the proposal author for their closing summation but must notify the committee it's the last round of Pro/Con debate before doing so.
 - a. For example, if the previous speaker spoke Pro, and the presiding co-chair asks for a Con speaker, but no delegate seeks recognition, the presiding

C. ATHLETICS AND FREE TIME

This is a working conference; thus very limited time is available for athletic competition or free time events. There will be planned recreational programs, including trips to points of interest on the one free afternoon. Blue Ridge has tennis courts, a gymnasium, swimming pool and other excellent facilities. The mountains lend themselves to hikes and mountain climbing. All recreation will be coordinated by a member of the Conference Advisor Staff.

The Blue Ridge Spirit

The YMCA Blue Ridge Assembly was established in 1906 as an interdenominational Christian conference and training center by Dr. Willis D. Weatherford, when he climbed a tree near where Eureka Hall now stands and exclaimed, "Eureka, we have found it!" When Dr. Weatherford founded Blue Ridge, he recruited college age young people to work, based on four guiding principles.

1. There is dignity in all labor. Anything ministering to human need is a God given task.
2. Every person must be intellectually respectable and learn to think.
3. Religion is indispensable to building life values.
4. A person must believe in the dignity and worth of individual persons as created in the image of God and worthy of love and respect.

Dr. Weatherford urged students and conference guests to appreciate fully the significance of quiet and meditation. He believed the Assembly with its mountains and natural settings give both the students and guests an opportunity for meditation in their search for future goals. It is during this time of meditation and sharing that the Blue Ridge Spirit develops an inexplicable force bringing people together from differing backgrounds to share a common experience.

The YMCA

George Williams founded the YMCA in 1844. In 1844, industrialized London was a place of great turmoil and despair. For the young men who migrated to the city from rural areas to find jobs, London offered a bleak landscape of tenement housing and dangerous influences.

Twenty-two-year-old George Williams, a farmer-turned-department store worker, was troubled by what he saw. He joined 11 friends to organize the first Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) as a refuge of Bible study and Christian prayer for young men seeking escape from the hazards of life on the streets.

Although an association of young men meeting around a common purpose was nothing new, the Y offered something unique for its time: a strong Christian drive to meet the needs of the community and openness to members from all walks of life who desire to grow in mind, body, and spirit.

Today, the YMCA continues to be dedicated to putting Christian principles into practice through programs that build a healthy spirit, mind, and body for all.

The Core Values of the YMCA

CARING - "For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Galatians 5:14

HONESTY - "He that speaks the truth shows righteousness..." Proverbs 12:17

RESPECT - "Pay all of them their dues, ... respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due." Romans 13:7

RESPONSIBILITY – "Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world." James 1:27

FAITH – "The just shall live by faith." Romans 1:17
