

Proposal for the Establishment of the UPOU Edible Garden: Sustainable Production And Consumption

Title of the Project	UPOU Edible Garden: Sustainable Production And Consumption
Proponent/s	Joane V. Serrano, PhD Dean FMDS, UP Open University
Objectives	The goal of this project is to contribute to SDG goal 2: end hunger by helping communities build home gardens by applying multiple strategies with the end goal of growing appreciation toward resilience, development, entrepreneurship and nutrition. This project aims to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Encourage the practice of responsible production and consumption of food in UPOU community; 2) Produce edible foods for UPOU faculty and staff's health and well-being 3) Mainstream gender activities; 4) Conduct information and awareness campaign to help build community resiliency and empower families through modelling of the garden and seminars; and 5) Organize activities that will promote environmental empathy among the UPOU community.
Duration/Date	August 2022 - August 2023
Target Beneficiaries	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. UPOU Community 2. Adopted Schools and Communities
Cost of Participation	To be charged against UPOU-FMDS Non-Formal Programs.
Office in Charge	FMDS
Description of the proposed project	In order to achieve SDG goal 2: end hunger by 2030, there is a need for individuals, organizations and communities to work together in organizing and implementing programs and activities that will help achieve this goal. This simple initiative is being proposed to promote awareness on SDG 2 especially in communities. This project will organize activities that will help build their resilience and help them become more sustainable. The outputs of the project are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Education and awareness of the UPOU Community - Skills in gardening - Sustainable Production And Consumption

Activities and Timeline
	Activities	August - September 2022	October 2022	November	December 2022	2023
	Planning
	Development of the Garden
	Feeding program (Paghiras)
	Training on home gardening
	Training on maintaining the garden					