

Privacy Policy

Effective date: 2025/1/22

This Privacy Policy applies to your installation and use of Phoenix Blaze. When you install and use the App, we will process your information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. By installing or using the App, you confirm your acceptance of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree to this Privacy Policy, you must not install or use the App.

Collection of Information

- 1.You provide us with your personal data directly. Such as your email address;
- 2.We may receive usage data from applications running on your device. Such as: device identifiers (such as IDFA, IDFV, GAID), device information (such as device type, brand, operating system, language, resolution), usage logs;
- 3.Where permitted by law, we may also obtain data from public and commercial third-party sources.

Use of Information

We may use the information we collect about you to communicate with you, to provide the Services, to comply with any applicable legal obligations, to enforce any applicable General Terms of Service, and to protect or defend the Services, our rights, and the rights of our users or others.

Sharing of Information

We work with a variety of third parties and service providers such as third party subcontractors and marketing partner to help provide you with the Service and we may share information with them to support these efforts. In such cases, these companies must abide by our information privacy and security requirements, and follow Google's Privacy rules.

Retention of Information

We will retain the information we collect for different periods of time depending on the content of the information, how we use it, and how you have configured your settings:

- 1.We will retain certain information until you delete your account, such as information about how often you use our services.
- 2.We will retain certain information about you longer when necessary for legitimate business or legal purposes (such as security, fraud and abuse prevention).
- 3.Your information will be automatically deleted or anonymized after a specified period of time, such as advertising information in server logs.

Protection of Information

For your personal data that we collect, we will take reasonable steps to protect your data from loss, theft, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

Third Party

This Privacy Policy does not apply to the processing of your information by third parties. We recommend that you also carefully read the privacy policies of the following third parties to understand how these third parties process your information:
