Parent Right to Know Teacher Qualifications

You have the right to know about the teaching qualifications of your child's classroom teacher in a school receiving Title I funds. Districts receiving Title I funds must notify parents that they may ask about the professional qualifications of their child's classroom teacher.

These qualifications include:

1. Whether the teacher has met the Ohio teacher licensing criteria for the grade level and subject areas in which the teacher provides you child instruction.
2. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or temporary status that waives State licensing requirements.
3. The undergraduate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate degree or certification (such as National Board Certification) held by the teacher and the field of discipline of certification or degree.
4. Whether your child is provided services by instructional paraprofessionals and, if so, their qualifications.

You may request information by submitting your request in writing. Be sure to include your child's full name, your full name, your complete address including zip code, and the name of your child's teacher. Please send request to the school. You can also email or fax this request to the building principal.
