

Good Project: Have You Ever? Moral Foundations Reflection

Lesson 2.3 | Intercultural Ethics & Moral Foundations

Instructions:

Hold up five fingers (or more if your teacher invites you to).

As each prompt is read aloud, put a finger down if the statement applies to you (if it has ever happened to you or if you've felt that way).

Note: This isn't a competition—it's a tool for self-awareness and understanding how different people emphasize different values.

Please try to be honest and respectful. You can also notice patterns in your responses and those of your peers.

Have You Ever...

- 1. ...felt really upset seeing someone treated unkindly or unfairly?
- 2. ...followed a rule you didn't personally agree with?
- 3. ...spoken up when you thought something wasn't fair?

Reflection:

- 1. Which statements did most people relate to?
- 2. What patterns did you notice? Did others answer like you or not?
- 3. Which statements felt personal or surprising?
- 4. Why do you think people responded differently?
- 5. How might people from different backgrounds or cultures respond differently?
