

Chip

All right, here we go.

Chip

[Typing on a typewriter] "To my wife. I feel obligated to tell you another woman has stolen my heart. By this, I mean, she literally pulled it out of my body and ate it. Freaky stuff. I really had no say in the matter. Technically now, I am deceased, which legally nullifies our marriage. They say, 'till death do us part', and goddamn, am I dead? Just disgustingly so. I was not a good husband to you. In fact, I faked my death many times so as to trick you into leaving me alone. Though this may be hard to believe, I can assure you this time, nothing about my death has been faked. Know that even though I, your faithful husband, have died, I will always be your boo. Ha-ha, get it. Good luck with the oranges or whatever. Chip."

Chip

That'll go over well.

Grizzly

Hi, everyone. Welcome back to Just Roll With It. My name is Grizzly. I'm the only Dungeon Master. This is Riptide.

Bizly

Hey, everybody. [Pretending to smoke] My name is Bizly. I play Chip.

Condi

Hey, what's up? It's me, Condi. I commiserate with everybody who had to watch that just now from Bizly. I do offer my deepest condolences for the loss of whatever it is that he just took from you. I played Jay Ferin.

Charlie

Yeah, I'm Charlie Slimecicle, and I play Gillion Tidestrider!

[Everyone cheers as Charlie shows off his new Gillion Tidestrider Cosplay Armour]

Charlie

Oh, I got the whole fucking thing, dude. Look at this. This is crazy. This thing, it's so tight, too. I'm fucking snatched. I'm snatched like a fucking medieval porridge maker. Oh, my god. Yeah, no, it's like the whole thing, man. It's so fucking cool.

Condi

That's crazy. Where did you get that? How did you get that?

Grizzly

That is fire, dude!

Charlie

Big, massive credits to... You can find him on Twitter, @Poodwattle.

Condi

Poodwattle.

Bizly

Poodwattle

Charlie

He made this whole thing and messaged me about it, and turns out he actually lived nearby. And so I just went on and he put it on me and I haven't been able to get it off! For weeks!

Grizzly

Poodwattle? We don't do the intro anymore, but we did it one more time. Just for you.

Charlie

I appreciate it.

Condi

That's the craziest part is just fits you.

Charlie

[Jokingly pained] Yeah,

Condi

It fits you like perfectly.

Charlie

I mean, can I breathe in all the way? [quick short breath in] Not really. But that's okay. I feel more in it than ever. I don't know how my characters lived this long, actually. Having now been in the armor, I have no fucking idea how he survived.

Grizzly

How the fuck is he moving like that? How does he swim without sinking?

Charlie

I don't know. I don't know. [As Gillion] "My armor is tight today huh."

Grizzly

Charlie and Gillion progressively throughout the episode are just going to get more and more wet and red.

Condi

Dude, it is cool as hell. Do you like a little spin. Yeah, like a really slow one. Really slow. Really slow. Really slow. Really slow.

Charlie

But there's detail and everything. Oh, wait, it has the little moon thing. Do you see it?

Grizzly

Audio listeners taking another fat fucking L today.

Condi

Yeah, huge fucking L for audio listeners.

Charlie

Audio listeners? I don't know, do you always do fucking imagine it? You dick!

Grizzly

Previously in The Black Sea, the three of you, Captains of the Riptide Pirates, split from part of your crew, the rest of them, Gryffon and Queen, as they followed Star and Zamia to aid them in clearing out what they could of the Daphne Palace to arrange a wedding later for both Star and Zamia. Then you followed Igneous through a blighted mushroom forest, seeing the hollowed remains of a myconoid, and entered an abandoned town, Portabella Town, where Chip drank with a hollowed bartender, and Gillion and Jay discussed the weight of the crushing expectations, they both share near a broken prophetic hero statue. You arrived at the foot of this unnatural, erected, dry ice mountain where Gillion summoned Lucy, his new steed to help him climb as Jay flew and Chip and Igneous struggled to get there. But once you got to a break, like a fourth of the way up the mountain, you walked across this frozen lake, almost the surface of snow and ice as it crumbled and these Yeti Pirates erupted and began to attack and fire and quiz you, specifically, Chip, on Captain Rose.

Bizly

It went great and I answered all the questions right immediately.

Grizzly

Miraculously, Chip answered or provided the correct answers, and the encounter subsided and you met this crew that used to know Captain Rose, and they begin to lead you into some secret opening in the side of this icy mountain. And so, the journey continues. You guys on this little sailboat get sort of led through this cliffside lake to the next base of the mountain where you watched Floski, and the muscular female sort of jump off. You actually watched them, I guess, walk on top of the surface of the water, almost as it's still frozen. And she grabs or puts her hands on the surface of this icy mountain and seems to reveal this secret entryway, pushes it and then rolls it to the right where the sailboat continues to sail in with you and then she shuts it behind you. And then you're surrounded by this darkness as your eyes adjust from being out, not in the daylight, but just out in general and then into this interior that is completely unlit. You feel the boat gently caressed forward and then...

Chip

All right, who's touching my hand?

Jay

Not me.

Chip

I know someone's doing it.

Gillion

Wait, where's Lucy?

Chip

No, please say it's not Lucy. Please say it's not Lucy. Please say it's not Lucy. Literally anybody, please.

Lucy

[Licks Chip's hand a few times]

Chip

Oh, it's wet. Oh, it's so wet. Oh, it's so wet. Please turn on the lights.

Charlie

By the dimly glowing red eyes next to it. It might be Lucy.

Grizzly

As you say that, and you feel the boat slowly come to a stop. In this interior, these little glows begin to sparkle into existence. As you see these different colored, like snowflake-shaped crystals gently floating around this interior, an interior that is dome-shaped, like being inside of a cavern. Every single shadow in this place seems to sparkle in the same way that the crystals do. And all the yeti pirates get off their own sailboat, what was left of them. And the big one, Jarski, looks back and just gestures for you guys to follow in as you arrive in this cave of icy wonder. It's very hard to describe.

Condi

I don't know why. I mean, we were just at Disneyland, but I just pictured It's A Small World.

Charlie

I kill myself.

Grizzly

It's not a small world from Disney. I fucking hate that ride!

Charlie

I jump into the water, I close my gills, and I drown.

Grizzly

As you continue to follow in with him, it's almost more akin to not a small world. But you ever seen those basements that are just full of cool shit? Like a pool table and decoration, like a gamer lounge almost, but not for-

Charlie

It's like a man cave?

Grizzly

Yeah, but more gender neutral because it's not just for men. It's like a cave of-

Charlie

It's a They-Cave.

[Everyone Laughs]

Grizzly

Yes, you arrive in the icy They-Cave.

Chip

Dope They-Cave.

Grizzly

You see you're hung up on the walls and from the ceilings. There's different pirate ship wheels or helms that are just like decoration, almost like trophies even. They have some history of being a pirate and raiding different ships and then taking their helm as a trophy.

Condi

Essentially the same idea as going up to a car and stealing the little fucking emblem off of it.

Grizzly

I didn't know that was a thing. Are you a criminal, Condi? Maybe not on the show.

Condi

No, I would never do that.

Bizly

Condi's not.

Grizzly

You see that they're bickering, not bickering, familial bickering in front of you as they lead you in a little deeper.

Jay

What do you think is up there? Just an open question into the echoing Thave.

Chip

Probably something equally as shiny.

Gillion

Maybe like a ping pong table? This is incredible, by the way. I'm sorry about your boat back there.

Grizzly

Jarski turns around for a moment.

Jarski

Ahh no worries. We'll build another one. Welcome in, by the way. It's so good to have new visitors and a friend of a Captain Rose.

Jay

I figure, yeah. Hey, so what's up with the 50-foot portrait of Captain Rose?

Jarski

That, well, he changed our life. And then the Black Rose Pirates saved us even, if you will. That's the biggest one that they could make.

Gillion

I guess that explains the golden statue of Captain Rose in the corner.

Jarski

Made of gold, and underneath it's chocolate if you can get through the golden exterior.

Jay

What?

Chip

What are those in the display case? Is that underwear?

Jarski

That is underwear, but actually that belongs to Mike. Mike has to change it every few hours.

Charlie

You just keep it in the display case? Or was that a special repair?

Mike

Yeah, I'm proud of them,

Grizzly

Mike says.

Jay

Hey, good for you, Mike.

Mike

This one's got a little stain. Don't know why.

Gillion

Guys, we got to get out of here.

Chip

No, hang on, Mike. I can get behind that. I think I need to start doing this on our ship.

Mike

Yeah, you should.

Chip

We have room, right? In the quarters? Yeah, you're onto something, Mike.

Jay

Yeah, we totally have room.

Chip

I mean I've been wearing this pair for a long time.

Gillion

I agree. I think Mike is on something.

Jay

Yeah, let's just circle back around to that later on maybe.

Chip

I'm doing it.

Jay

What is your connection? I mean, you said he saved you.

Grizzly

You've gotten to the point now where this is there, almost like a lounge area. Reebo, the thinner, monkish one, sits down on this plush, almost like a mushroom, like a beanbag mushroom chair, solid color. He just sits on, pulls out some rolled paper. It looks like tobacco of some sort, but it's probably something you don't know about. Next to it, though, is another one of these mushroom beanbag chairs that has painted Captain Rose's face on it, which is available for anyone else. Reebo speaks up.

Reebo

There was a time when we weren't so chill like this. When we would... I probably didn't sound like this last game, but I'm changing it up.

Gillion

It's a different kind of high, huh?

Reebo

You know. Yes.

Chip

Oh, the accent, weed...

Gillion

Chip don't fucking-

Reebo

Would you like to try it? Yes, it does actually change your accent.

Chip

Sure, sure, sure. I'll try it.

Gillion

No, no, no.

Jay

No, no. Chip, put that down.

Reebo

A decade ago, even, we- [stumbling over words] not friends with the island, raiding them, pillaging, being sort of a nuisance, if you will. All of a sudden, these pirates show up and then pirates are... There's a pride thing, if you will. We fought them. And well, they knocked some sense into us, to put it lightly. Can I have that back? Are you finished?

Chip

[In a deep British accent] Oh, That was crazy, man. Good stuff.

Gillion

You know what? Actually, hang on. Maybe I.

Chip

Fancy a puff, Gillion?

Gillion

Oh, don't mind if I do.

Chip

Get silly Gilly.

Gillion

[In an Irish Accent] Not bad, what you got here.

Grizzly

I forgot you were passing it around.

Jay

Oh, God.

Grizzly

Okay, so you're in this accent-changing blunt rotation with the Yeti Pirates. Jay, would you like to uh?

Condi

Yeah, sure. Just don't ask me to speak yet.

Jay

Fuck it.

Condi

Inhale it. It literally goes in my mouth. I swallow it.

Chip

Jay superman'd it.

Reebo

Don't worry, I have another one.

Grizzly

Pulls it out, starts fixing it up, rolling up. Jarski says,

Jarski

It's leaving out a ton of the details. I mean, we were under this ice queen. It's very draconic. Beast of you. If you have heard of it, probably not, though. Not with how young this lot looks. We did our bidding, mostly. Captain Rose and the crew freed us. This mountain is our frozen remains, and when she was frozen, we were free to be our own leaders.

Jay

[In a high-pitched British accent] Oh, well that's just ace innit? [Laughter] Jolly good.

Condi

I can't. I already struggle with a woman voice.

Gillion

Oh, looks like it's worn off.

Jay

Oh, that was fast. Wow.

[Laughter]

Gillion

That is actually proper metal. [Coughs] Really metal, though. Is that the reason that the corruption doesn't affect you? You all seem sound of mind.

Jarski

Oh, that's our ancestors to think for. And we have the blood of an ice elemental not just in the ice, but the coldest, driest ice known to any world or plane. Because of that, I guess it just makes you close to immune.

Jay

Okay, ice is the weakness. Got you.

Gillion

Actually, are genetically chill like that. Fuck.

Jarski

What are you genetically? I mean, what are you doing here?

Charlie

Gillion just flashes back to the trees, starts having an existential crisis.

Gillion

I don't know.

Chip

Well, I think genetically, Gillion is like the chosen one, born of the Gods and everything like that. Jay has this like fire in her blood that makes her super powerful. And I'm like a guy. Yeah... you know.

Jarski

You're, yeah. You look like shit.

Chip

Yeah, I'm dead. I'm not even a guy. I'm just like...

Gillion

Yeah, genetically dead. But like the dudest dude for sure. We're only here because of Chip. He's the one that was on the crew with the Black Rose Pirates.

Jay

That's true.

Chip

Yeah, I was just a little shorter back then.

Jay

Actually, we have a few of the Black Rose. We've met with Rufus in All-Port and Drey and Finn are on our ship.

Jarski

Really?

Grizzly

He starts to circle you around Chip.

Jarski

No, I think I remember you if you were a part of the crew.

Chip

Yeah, I was just tiny and weird and I'm sticking firecrackers in things. I had a Firecracker phase. Maybe you remember the Firecrackers?

Jarski

Not ringing a bell, but you're not the first pirates to come up this side of the mountain. Although you're the first friends, so please, if there is any way we can help. I mean, you look- you said you're dead. Perhaps you could use some of the- How long have you been in the Black Sea? Uh been exposed to this element that is corrupting.

Jay

I'm going to say it's been like two or three days now.

Chip

About three days. Long enough to die.

Jay

Long enough to die.

Chip

-died here.

Jay

-one third of us died, so...

Chip

Were these other pirates like spidery? Like one of them, Spidery?

Jarski

No, most of them pretty forgettable, really. I mean, they're all frozen at the bottom of the lake outside so...

Chip

That?

Gillion

All right.

Jarski

Well, we can offer some assistance with all that corruption.

Jay

Do you have any refreshments?

Grizzly

As soon as he says that you ask that you see the Floski lean over and whisper into his ear.

Jarski

Okay... We have uhm- I'll just be blunt.

Gillion

No, thank you.

Chip

He's not good with peer pressure sorry.

Jarski

Aside from the corruption, you kind of smell like shit. And what we can do for ya as friends of Captain Rose is give you a little cleanse, which will help with the corruption and the smell.

Jay

Like a shower?

Jarski

But a special one.

Jay

I'm in. Yeah, I haven't showered in ages.

Chip

I don't think that's coming off of Jay. She's just like that. But that'd be good for me.

Condi

I punch Chip in the back of the head.

Chip

What is it?

Condi

You don't even feel it. It's zero damage.

Jarski

My sister in arms here, Floski, would like to give you a-a, your hair makeover so to fit our own vibe. It's kind of her thing, and she doesn't have many people to practice on.

Jay

All of us are just like...

Grizzly

And she looks like stoic. She's right next to him, arms crossed. And you see she actually has like, for her stature and her face beautiful hair.

Jay

No no, sidebar. Sidebar one second.

Gillion

Okay, yeah what's up?

Jay

There's an old idiom that I heard, right? It mentioned you walk into a room and there's two barbers. One has really nice hair and one has really bad hair. Usually you go with the one that has the really bad. Wait, fuck. How did that go again? No, nice.

Gillion

Wait, no. Wait, why would you go? Wait, because could they cut their own hair? Well, it's different if you're cutting someone else's hair.

Jay

No, because do they cut their own hair? Does she cut her own hair? Or is it one of you... Okay, never mind. This is just irrelevant now. Yeah.

Mike

Why are you guys making this so complicated.

Grizzly

Mike says-

Gillion

I don't know. I'm in. There was a sidebar. Who am I to deny a pirate sidebar?

Jay

Well, it was just time for a sidebar.

Chip

Hey, Mike, what's your last name?

Mike

What's my last name, Jarski?

Jarski

I don't know. Give yourself one. We don't really have last names.

Chip

Mike Onoid.

Jay

I think Onoid is a really good last name. Mike Onoid.

Gillion

Yeah, that's really good. I think that really fits the personality. Yeah.

Mike

Okay!

Jay

Yeah, you can cut our hair. You can cut our hair. Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Gillion

Yeah you can cut our hair. Yeah, showers make you wetter.

Jay

I mean, long hair is inconvenient most of the time in battlefield or otherwise.

Chip

I'm kind of the kind of guy who would cut his own hair, and I'm pretty good at it, I would say. So just be careful with how you-

Jay

Is that what your bangs are straight?

Chip

They're not straight. They're curved how they're supposed to be.

Chip

Igneous elbows you a bit, Chip leans into your ear.

Igneous

Don't you want to mention the thing that you're looking for reason you're uh...

Chip

All right, but I figured they'll cut the hair and we can get a bath and then we bring it up.

Jay

Why don't we bring it up. Just get everything on the table now.

Chip

Okay. Okay. All right. I appreciate the haircut, but we actually came up here because we were looking to find something that was left for me. Friend of the Black Rose Pirates. There's a construct that had a rose and a note.

Jarski

Can I see the note?

Bizly

Yeah, I'll pass it over.

Grizzly

you see Big Guy Jarski. That's his full name. [Light giggles] He's looking at the node for a second. Looks up and eyes you.

Jarski

You lot go get cleaned up and I'll return shortly.

Jay

Okay.

Grizzly

Turns around and you watch him start to walk away. Then he walks right into a wall and then disappears.

Condi

I would like to insight check first roll in a month. Right in the middle, 10, 12.

Grizzly

What is Jay trying to insight?

Condi

I don't know. It's just like something ominous about the way he said that. Was it more of an intrigue? Was he just intrigued with this letter or did he know about this and was expecting this to come up one day? That's the kind of thing I'm looking for I think.

Grizzly

The emotions that you read on his face are he tried to keep it reserved and subtle, but it's quite giddy.

Condi

Excited.

Grizzly

Kind of hops away a little bit.

Condi

He does a little heel click as he goes through the wall.

Grizzly

Yeah, only you see that.

Condi

With my 27 passive perception.

Grizzly

Floski opens up another section, just sort of pushes another one of these. Almost like they're controlling the ice in here to shape it into another... Like shape it from being closed off to be in the door into this hallway entryway. You get led into this very gym bathroom shower situation where there's these small squares and these nozzles. And then Mike goes,

Mike

Okay, I'm going to produce it so I'll go over here on this hose, and I'm just going to blow into it and then.

Gillion

What do you mean you're going to produce? What shower is this, Mike?

Mike

You just stand under the hoses, and when you come out, you'll be feeling right as rain.

Gillion

All right.

Mike

Hopefully. Is anybody allergic?

Jay

To what?

Chip

To what?

Gillion

To water?

Gillion

Mike, to what?

Mike

Magic.

Gillion

Where's the water coming from, Mike?

Mike

Me.

[Laughing]

Gillion

All right.

Grizzly

Do you take Lucy in with you?

Charlie

Yes, I want to give her a side part. I want to give Lucy a haircut.

Lucy

Shower, big brother. [Bleats]

Gillion

Yes, that's right, little sister here. Stand right here under Mike's special hose. We'll get a little drizzle going. All right, Mike, I'll hydrate it up for this. You think you can handle all four of us?

Grizzly

I assume you guys separate into your own little individual sections. And all right, here we go.

Chip

Wait, guys, who put Lucy in mine?

Grizzly

I just need Chip and Lucy to make Con saves.

Charlie

Lucy. Dude, if this is how she dies, I'll be so upset.

Bizly

I got a seven.

Charlie

Lucy got a three.

Grizzly

Down this hall, almost reverberated, you hear [deep breath in] a really deep inhale, and then from down the hall, as the steam almost. Not necessarily water, but vapor and the steam starts to come out of the nozzles above you in this chamber. It quickly, with the pressure, begins to fill your spaces, your little corners. Gillion and Jay, again, it's not a temperature that is by any means normal to explain, where it feels like it should be one thing and then it's just completely different.

Charlie

It's like the so cold, it's hot, or so hot, it's cold sort of thing?

Grizzly

Yes. Yeah, it's like so cold, it's hot. But for you two, it feels refreshing. All of your pores or everything that is seeped into your pores for however long it's been since the two of you have bathed or just gotten the salt out of your hair or whatever, it is seeping into it and then pushing it out just by this spa and relaxing feeling for the two of you.

Jay

This is wonderful.

Charlie

I exfoliate.

Grizzly

As soon as it touches your skin, Chip, it fucking burns like bad. It feels so painful as soon as it hits you. I'm going to ask if you want to stay in here or if you want to run out because of the pain. Next to you, you hear Lucy go, [Bleating] and just screech and just start kicking all around.

Gillion

Oh, yeah, you said it, Lucy. God damn! There's years of gunk coming out of these puppies.

Grizzly

And you watch Lucy begin to fucking melt into this black ooze of a puddle.

Charlie

W-AAA! What do I see that? Do I see that?

Grizzly

If Lucy is with chip, then I'm going to say no.

Charlie

Lucy fucking melts? That's insane oh, my God.

Bizly

I mean, what's the worst it could do? Kill me? I'm going to stay?

Grizzly

You can die if you fail Death Saving throws.

Bizly

What? Am I taking damage from this?

Grizzly

If you want me to be clear about it, yeah, it's going to hurt. It's going to be damage. It's going to hurt.

Bizly

It's not doing the cleaning thing.

Grizzly

I didn't say that.

Bizly

If it just hurts, but I'm still getting the good effects, I would like to stay.

Condi

He's getting gunked out.

Chip

I feel like I'm getting a lot of the gunk out. There's a lot of stuff on the floor.

Charlie

A little Goobleck comes out of everyone's pores.

Goobleck

Hee Hoo!

Charlie

Goes down the drain.

Gillion

What?

Grizzly

That's so terrifying.

Condi

Horrifying.

Chip

Mike Onoid, you got to see this.

Grizzly

You take 43 points of radiant damage. [Steam Sizzling] Because it's doubled. As you feel this thing almost burns and singe your skin, basically trying to exercise you. It's really hard. There's no other way to explain it. Everybody here, however, as you resist, unfortunately, Lucy does not.

Charlie

So where does... Wait, so-

Condi

Lucy's melted.

Grizzly

Lucy goes down the drain.

Charlie

No! Oh, my God! I don't even know.

Gillion

Oh, Lucy, this is quite the refresh isn't it?

Grizzly

It feels great for you guys.

Jay

That was wonderful. Wow.

Grizzly

Mike runs out of breath, the steam shower stop, and slowly they begin to dissipate. There are little, let's just say, cloth towels hung up everywhere because you're kind of moist now. It's like walking into a steam room and coming out you're just kind of soaked.

Charlie

I stay far away from those things.

Grizzly

Obviously, Gillion doesn't need it. How's Chip feeling after that?

Bizly

I walk- You guys are just having a good time. Like, "Oh, that felt so good." You walk out, you're just hanging out. You look over, Chip walks out. He's just stiff as a board. And you ever seen Terminator after he gets dipped in the lava? Like bones?

Charlie

Wait, your bones?

Condi

You've lost skin?

Bizly

There's like a little bit of flesh left, but I would walk out.

Chip

[Pained] Refreshing

Gillion

Uhh, Mike.

Jay

Chip, what the fuck?

Chip

Well I guess they just had to burn the corruption away.

Jay

Where is your skin?

Gillion

Oh there must have been a lot of corruption, man because... hooooo...

Grizzly

We're just seeing all this because he had to leave the bandana out.

Chip

Maybe it's a good thing. I could take up music. Check this out.

Bizly

I grab a little stick and I start to play my ribs. [5 upbeat notes play]

Jay

How are you... still-

Gillion

This is all starting to sink in.

Jay

This is a lot. This is a lot. Yeah, I know.

Gillion

Just let me here.

Charlie

Can I try? Oh, fuck. Can I even use Lay On Hands on him or will he just explode? Boop. And I'm going to use one point of Layon hands on him and judge if he heals or explodes.

Grizzly

Oh, no. This feature has no effect on undead and constructs.

Charlie

No, fuck.

Chip

You're going to put some skin back?

Gillion

Yeah.

Bizly

Do that. You see a little bit of the skin that's left just [whistles] down to the ground.

Gillion

At least it looks cleaner now.

Grizzly

Mike sort of bounces when he walks and he comes through the steam and then sees Chip and he goes,

Mike

AAH!

Grizzly

He just like runs away.

Chip

What did you see?

Mike

I asked if anyone was allergic!

Jay

You should put the bandana back on.

Gillion

And maybe make a note in case any future doctor's appointments, they ask for allergies.

Grizzly

Everybody, Gillion, doesn't matter for Gillion, but reduce your corruption points by three and remove all of your exhaustion.

Charlie

Oh, great. That's awesome.

Grizzly

I don't actually know what the bathing routine is for Pirates, but you guys are fucking clean. I mean, sparkly. I mean, you have the smoothest, most glistening skin.

Condi

Except for Chip, he doesn't have skin anymore.

Bizly

I'm just imagining a montage of you guys modeling. You get up and you're walking around, you're looking good. Every now and again, flashes over to me standing stiff as a board, like half of my skin is gone.

Gillion

Well, Chip, at least your skin looks great. Just wish it was still you know... On you.

Jay

Nice and exfoliated.

Chip

It's all right. It's all right.

Bizly

I put on the bandana and [snaps] I look normal again.

Grizzly

That was a divine shower.

Condi

I want to do it again.

Gillion

Oh, where's Lucy, by the way? Did she like it?

Chip

She was in there at first. I thought she just left her- left before me.

Grizzly

The flesh, it's in just your mind and Lucy fucking melting into the drain.

Condi

[Bleating as Lucy]

Gillion

That's weird. It wouldn't be very much like my little sister to turn down a holy shower [through laughter] would it.

Chip

Sorry, I was a little distracted by all my skin coming off. I don't know.

Gillion

No, it's okay.

Chip

[Whispering] I think she went down the drain.

Charlie

I go over and I take one last look.

Chip

She went to the big farm in the sewage system, little guy. Don't worry.

Gillion

I don't even know if I can summon her again. I don't know what something went so wrong, but so right. Well, we all loved you, Lucy.

Chip

Totally. I felt that way. I miss her soft, wet tongue.

Jay

I miss her jumping leg.

Gillion

I'll miss the way she spoke in some demented human voice to me, calling me her big brother. I'll miss the way her fur didn't feel quite like fur.

Grizzly

Charlie, do you just want to roll a D20 for me real quick?

15.

Grizzly

Eventually, as you get called back into that lounge area, the chillax place in the Thave, and you get sat down pretty, I don't want to say harshly, like she doesn't know her own strength. You get sat in these chairs. First, who wants to go first on getting this Viking hairstyle by Floski?

Bizly

I don't really have hair like that anymore. If my skin is gone.

Charlie

Did you just fucking weasle your way out of a haircut by saying, all my hair falls out, and then I illusion it back on? You're insane.

Bizly

She could show me what it should look like.

Grizzly

I didn't do that to you, canonical. You could have missing skin, but still have hair.

Charlie

Are you like a full Minecraft skeleton? Yeah-

Bizly

I was ready to ride as a skeleton.

Grizzly

I don't think you're a full fucking skeleton.

Charlie

Bro, straight up accepted it and became a mob.

Grizzly

It's up to you, your character, if you want to be a full skeleton.

Charlie

I'll go first if you guys want to.

Condi

Yeah, I'll go a second.

Charlie

I mean, I've got a lot, so maybe a good test run, right?

Grizzly

As you sit down, you hear Floski very quietly say,

Floski

Will you ever consider being bald?

Charlie

I start struggling. I start struggling. I start struggling. I start getting up. I start,

Gillion

Jay, you can go first! You can go first Jay!

Grizzly

Strength check. Strength check. Strength check. Strength check.

Bizly

Gillion you look over at Chip. He's just rubbing his hands together, getting ready.

Gillion

This is not a Thave. This is a house of Demons!

Charlie

I rolled physical, but I guess that's... I got a 14.

Grizzly

Yeah, you're stuck in a chair.

Gillion

You can't. You can't ruin me!

Grizzly

[Sassy] She begins to go to work.

Charlie

Start trying to flex my hair so it can't be cut.

Gillion

[Grunting as he flexes his hair muscles]

Grizzly

During this burst of chaos, Jarski comes back and he's holding a treasure chest only he can carry, really. It's like two hands under it. It's fucking huge. It's just like walking over. And he sets that shit down on the ground as Gillion is struggling in front of the Chip and Jay, as you guys are hanging out with these Yeti Pirates.

Bizly

My jaw falls to the side and then drops to the ground.

Condi

You've been dead for like six hours.

Charlie

What the actual fuck, man?

Grizzly

Point at it, Chip.

Jarski

That's probably what you've been looking for.

Chip

Is it money?

Jarski

I don't know. That's the thing. When he left the island for the last time, left it with us. "Protect this. Don't ever try to open it. Don't let anyone else open it until they come."

Grizzly

You see that there is a six-letter locking mechanism at the front of it where a normal lock and key would be.

Jay

We had to solve a puzzle.

Chip

[Pondering] Six letter.

Gillion

Flarft

Condi

Okay.

Grizzly

He actually, looks taken aback for a second, Jarski.

Jarski

Wait, you don't know the code?

Jay

Oh, well, me and Gillion don't know. We're just guessing.

Jarski

Oh, no.

Grizzly

Starts to pace back and forth.

Gillion

I'm sure it's somewhere in that head right?

Chip

Wait, I could probably figure it out.

Jarski

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no. I now have a confession that I wasn't going to say, but now I have to because you don't know the code. We got a little impatient. It's been 10 years. Okay, 10 years or so since Captain Rose left us this. We tried to get into it. And now if you get it wrong again, it might explode. That's just my theory.

Chip

So wait, he said don't open it, but you've just been trying to open it.

Jay

What happened in the last attempts when you got it wrong to make you think that would explode on this last attempt?

Mike

Uh well...

Grizzly

Mike yells out, points at an underwear that looks charred by fire or lightning or something.

Mike

Well, that's what happened when I tried to get in it the first time.

Grizzly

Points at another underwear.

Mike

And then that's the second.

Chip

We have a lot of those. We can figure out a code. I mean-

Jay

Is there any hint?

Chip

Maybe...

Jay

Did a hint come with it? Like a little piece of paper?

Chip

Drey knows? Finn could know. Finn knows a lot of things.

Jay

That's true. I guess we could ask people. But same time, where's the fun in that?

Chip

The fun is not exploding!

Gillion

And the rose was left for you, right? That, Automaton seemed to recognize you.

Chip

Yeah.

Gillion

Maybe there's something locked deep inside that mind palace that can unlock this real chest.

Bizly

[Chip strains] I brainblast. I go into my mind palace.

Condi

While, he's brainblasting. Can I inspect the treasure chest slowly for any lettering or anything around it? What letters are on the mechanism, that thing? You know.

Bizly

Can I roll a history of some kind?

Grizzly

Jay , roll investigation first.

Condi

That's 12.

Grizzly

The six letters that are there right now are turn dials. And if we get into that, this will take a really longtime, so I'm just going to go with what's there right now. You see A, G, Y, C, E, X.

Jay

Why did you input A-Guy-Sex?

Chip

Password is gay sex?

Gillion

Chip. Run it. Run it.

Charlie

I cast Guidance on him.

Chip

You know what, Gill?

Charlie

I cast Guidance on him.

Chip

It's my destiny.

Gillion

It's your destiny to have gay sex.

Charlie

And I cast Guidance on him as he unlocks the chest.

Chip

I've been running from this one.

Grizzly

Wait, I wasn't done. It wasn't done. It wasn't done. Wait, wait, wait, wait.

Bizly

I'm write gay sex in. And it's over. And the campaign is over.

Grizzly

If you unscramble it just to switch the G and the A from the order I give you to put gay sex, sex with a C on the thing, and you confidently put that in, are you sure you want to do that?

Charlie

Yeah.

Bizly

No. What? No!

Grizzly

Jay, with your investigation, think about the X as a missing letter.

Condi

So A, G, Y, C, E are correct letters, but X is in wordle. If we were doing this wordle style, this would be a gray letter.

Grizzly

And then Chip you can roll History.

Bizly

That's an eight total.

Grizzly

Roll investigation instead to help Jay.

Bizly

17.

Grizzly

You reckon the note left behind is probably tied to this word.

Condi

What the fuck did the note say?

Bizly

Oh, I think I know what it is. Captain Rose. When I had that conversation with Niklaus, I said, Why would Captain Rose? What would he desire? What was the answer to that?

Jay

I don't know.

Gillion

I wasn't there.

Chip

It was legacy.

Jay

Oh, my God. Yeah, there it is. Yep, that's right. You're right.

Chip

And in the note, it said "The Legacy of the Black Rose will be eternal." The answer is legacy. [Clapping]

Grizzly

You sure you don't want to try G.A.Y.C.E.X?

Condi

I think we should try gay sex.

Bizly

I want to lock in gay sex for $5 million.

Charlie

Gay sex is number one on the board!

Condi

I like your theory, Bizly, but it's stupid. Gay sex.

Grizzly

The fucking chest explodes BAH! [explosion sounds]

Charlie

Listen, Bizly, the problem with your theory is it doesn't come together, but you know what does.

Bizly

Gay sex always comes.

Grizzly

Go ahead and lock in gay...

Bizly

Legacy.

Grizzly

You walk over and you start to move the letters on the dials and then basically rearrange them into the correct order. Click the two sides together to lock it in, "Legacy." There's like, a small moment of click and then gears, mechanisms inside the chest, and then almost like a small shock wave of this red, glittery, arcane light that shoots from the seams of the chest as it pops open and you're able to open it. Chip and Jay, and even Jarski and Mike and Reebo, Ah- Reebo was chilling because he's chill. So they all huddle over as you start to open it up and this red glow turns golden as you lift it up. Very Zeldalike.

Bizly

Then we cut to commercial.

Condi

The new KFC Big Fucker Chicken Sandwich.

Charlie

Have you ever thought your chicken didn't have enough fucking lard on it? It didn't have enough-

Condi

Introducing the Gay Sex Burger.

Bizly

The legacy chicken twisty McFuckface. Put it in your fucking mouth.

Charlie

Two slabs of fucking meat shaped like men between delicious cheese sheets.

Grizzly

Wopper, Wopper, Wopper. Junior, Double, Triple, Wopper.

Bizly

Come on down to Man Burger.

Grizzly

When you open this up, I wrote this down, and before we started I said I might regret this, but I wrote it down as an opportunity for you guys. It's like a fun little quirky, Hey, this is like the last chance or the last time that you'll ever have to think about your characters from the prequels. What I wrote down was when you open this up, what is one thing? You can say it out loud or DM me.

Charlie

I recall Finn's old notes. There's one creature that he studied the most.

Condi

No, no, no.

Grizzly

What do you guys think? And it can be anything that will fit in this chest. Drey Ferin, back when they were your brainchilds and not mine, Drey Ferin, Finn Tidestrider, and Arlin James left in this little chest a decade ago before they left this island.

Charlie

So something-

Grizzly

Legacy. Yeah, you can even treat it like a time capsule.

Bizly

A gem worth a million billion gold.

Charlie

This is so cool. I just worry that I'm going to come up with something like that's too much.

Grizzly

Don't worry about it. This is just the last chance for collaborative storytelling with those three characters pretty much. So Chip opens up the chest and he sees you see an assortment of items and they're all piled on top of an array of just like gold and gold coins and gems, just like normal pirate treasure stuff. But then what's mixed in it. You see some letters or some envelopes, some different items, and then one thing catches your eye immediately as soon as you clock it. So what do you pull out?

Bizly

I see one thing that catches my eye the most, that being a bright, shimmering, turquoise stone embedded into a silver ring.

Condi

-worth $1 billion.

Bizly

-a huge stone worth $1 billion. I've kind of got it in front of me, but it's orange. For all our video watchers, this is what it looks like, audio listeners. It's just a really big stone with almost like silver fingers coming up and grabbing it. I will take that and I will put it on. [Bizly shows the ring he is describing.]

Grizzly

Inside the turquoise stone, you can actually see almost like these, like swirling waves in it. And when you put it on, you get the sense that you're attuned to many things at the moment, the magic items you have. And this is going to take like a short rest or so to actually attune to to figure out what it does. So you don't know at the moment, but it feels very magical, feels powerful, and it reminds you of Arlin, the color, the waves. And for some reason putting it on makes you feel a little safer. Another thing that you catch before Jay rushes over and pushes you out of the way.

Condi

Damn, I'm just mean. Okay.

Grizzly

You also see an envelope with a black rose stamp and a conch shell, although it's a bit smaller, right next to it that you pull out, and then Jay rushes up.

Condi

I tackle you aside, I shoulder-check you, you go flying into a wall.

Jay

Out of the way!

Chip

This is a really cool- ah!

Grizzly

Jay, this excites you. You can tell Drey left something behind too. What is it? What catches your attention? What do you pull out?

Condi

I would probably look in and I'd quickly actually notice a pistol. It's like a silver and gold with swirling engravings that go from each end of the barrel towards the center where a giant circle is. It looks like a setting sun, basically like over a wavy ocean. He has attached to that as well. He has a rubber band going around that and a bunch of notes. Looking underneath the pistol, there is an entire just well-written formal letter addressed to Drey from his brother, Jason, and looking over it just looks like he is being disowned from the family.

Grizzly

A very aggressive letter in a way. Maybe a little passive, some disappointment.

Bizly

A lot of caps.

Grizzly

Is Jay just ripped that off the pistol and start reading?

Condi

Yeah, it wouldn't rip it off. She would unfold it. She would take it out from the bindings and then read it. And then on the backside, she'd flip it over.

Grizzly

Yeah, as soon as you look in the chest, you recognize the pistol, and you get the very brief flashbacks of being a kid and hearing about your uncle and his really sick, cool, rebellious, escapades as a pirate of the Black Rose Pirates when you're super young. You recollect about how he wasn't just known for being a sharpshooter. He was known for being a dual-wielding sharpshooter. So that's one out of two guns found.

Condi

Where's the other one? Who fucking knows? The Sure Shotgun is lost to the fucking void. And she flips it over and then the bottom right is a little picture of a really young Drey Ferin and Jason. He's got Jason in a fucking chokehold. He's given him a noogie. And above that...

Grizzly

Jason is so much larger, dude.

Condi

No, as kids, Drey was the larger one. It's the funny part.

Grizzly

Okay, okay.

Condi

Yeah, he just had... Jason had a growth spurt.

Grizzly

As kids, as kids.

Condi

And up above it on the back, scrawled in unfamiliar handwriting, it would say, "The path you choose to walk is your own. Though others take it with you. No other can walk it for you." And then it has the initial CR. I go drop kick Chip because apparently that's what I'm doing today.

Bizly

No, no, no, no. Once you get done, Chip body checks you out of the way.

Condi

While Gillion looks through it, we're just cartoonishly in a smoke cloud.

Bizly

Yeah, we're in a smoke cloud, like punching each other.

Grizzly

You're sort of palmed by Floski as you're ripped out of this cloud Jay and put into the hairdresser chair, and Gillion, you feel it done. Essentially, what you've noticed with Gillion is that she's giving you these very Norse braids and locks with bands around the braids, I guess. And you can describe it later if you wish. You don't really have to. It's up to the imagination. She didn't shave you bald but-

Charlie

Yeah, I know. I think I just look at it in a highly reflective glassy ice wall, and I just go,

Gillion

Norse. [play on "Nice"]

Bizly

He doesn't miss, folks.

Condi

Never misses.

Charlie

It's just too easy. And I go into the chest and I find a book on gay sex.

Gillion

Awesome.

Bizly

How do you attack me out of the way?

Charlie

I pick up the padlock and I rewire it to say "gaysex" and I throw it at you as it explodes.

Grizzly

No, no, no, no, no, no, no. You go up to the chest and you do, in fact, see a book by Finn Tidestrider.

Condi

I was trying to think about what it would be, and the first thing that came to my mind was "Dark Puckered Hole".

Charlie

Okay, it's a book called Dark Puckard Hole by my grandfather. I do immediately put it on the ground and use a level four smite. I destroy it forever. I obliterate it as it explodes in a blinding flash of light and is never again seen.

Grizzly

Wait, wait, wait.

Charlie

No, no, what?

Grizzly

Can this air? Can this go out publicly? Can people get- is this okay?

Charlie

"Apparently, there's been worse out publicly", I say, as I look at the cover where there's a rather crazy photo of my grandfather doing things I never could have imagined.

Bizly

Dark Puckered Hole is the funniest thing you've ever said. In your whole fucking life, man. This is it!

Grizzly

Before you smite the book, do you mind rolling Arcana?

Charlie

Fine, I roll Arcana on Dark Puckered Hole.

Grizzly

Because when you grab it, you feel this book is insanely magical.

Charlie

Okay, I got a 16.

Grizzly

You feel this book is insanely magical and has some properties that are given to you if you finish reading it.

Charlie

NOOO! - I put it on the ground and I destroy it forever.

Condi

Nightmare Nightmare Nightmare [Laughter]

Grizzly

[Through laughter] Are you sure?

Charlie

After you said that? Yeah.

Grizzly

You don't want to read the climax of this story?

Charlie

It's going to fucking increase your diameter, bro. I put it on the ground. I actually destroy it. I actually destroy it out of pure principle and it explodes. I look in the chest.

Gillion

Maybe he left something else too.

Charlie

There's nothing. No, I find a uh- like a green and blue and white with a barcode on one side, library card. It says "Library Card". It has some information about Finn on it, and then there's a little square with his face smiling. I pick it up and I go,

Gillion

Ooo!

Charlie

Then there's a flash of light as I pick it up and all of the- there's like a- Boosh!- The information on it changes to my name and birthdate and stuff. The photo is just me mid-blink going, "Ooo", forever. But I find this library card.

Gillion

Wonder what sort of places this gets you into.

Grizzly

Can you also roll D20 for me as well.

Charlie

Four.

Grizzly

In a flash of a very quick smite. The smoke clears when you finish looking at the card and the book has not been destroyed.

Charlie

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no!

Condi

There is no escape. This is your destiny.

Grizzly

It's quite magical.

Charlie

I look up at where I think the moon is and I go,

Gillion

Why?

Charlie

And I pick up the book and put it somewhere. I put it in a dark hole.

Bizly

All right just got to pull you away from the episode real quick to talk about our sponsor for this episode, HelloFresh. I got to tell you, I've been to HelloFresh for a while now. With my schedule, it can be so easy for me to forget about dinner. But HelloFresh makes it so easy, giving me over 40 recipes every week to choose from. With so many in-season ingredients, you'll taste all the freshness of fall in every bite of HelloFresh's chef-crafted recipes. Produce travels from the farm to your door for peak ripeness that you can taste. Hellofresh does all the shopping and meal planning for you. Ingredients arrive at your doorstep pre-portioned and ready to cook along with pictured step-by-step recipe cards. It is incredibly easy. I'm not a good cook, and these meals come out awesome every time. Even though the fall could feel jam-packed, HelloFresh makes ripping up a home-cooked dinner actually doable with quick and easy options, including their 15-minute meals. That's less time than it takes to get delivered. With everything pre-portioned and delivered right to your door every week, it's really a no-brainer. Turn to the HelloFresh market for amazing add-ons and enjoy the season's limited time fall flavors lineup. Feast on desserts like the apple cider cake with caramel sauce or please a crowd with appetizers like the barbecue pulled pork nachos. Don't forget the mini pumpkin cheesecake, perfect for a little me time treat. We all know HelloFresh takes the hassle out of mealtime, but did you know it can also save you money? A little fresh is cheaper than the grocery store and 25% less expensive than take out. That means less stress in your day and more money back in your pocket, baby. Like I said, I've used this for a while. I love all of the meals that come. It saves me so much time. And I love the stuff from the marketplace. I always get these banana chocolate chip muffins and they're amazing. They make me crazy. I love them so much. All the food that comes just tastes so good. And it's way easier than you would think to get food that feels restaurant quality even better. Go to hellofresh.com/50jrwi and use code 50JRWI for 50% off plus free shipping. That's hellofresh.com/50jrwi and use the code 50JRWI and you're going to get 50% off, which is crazy good. So go on over and get that sweet deal for America's number one, meal kit. Thank you so much, Hellofresh, for sponsoring this episode.

Grizzly

You also noticed that sort of hidden underneath the gold coins, there was a little velvet, almost like a dice bag of sorts that was hidden underneath some coins. When you pull out that card.

Charlie

Hang on, sorry. I'm trying to circle back around. What was the book called again? Dark Puckard Hole, was-

Condi

-maybe it's not actually about gay sex. Think about it.

Charlie

Bro, what if it's about the hole in the sea? [Condi laughs] It's the most important lore dump we ever get. [Grizzly laughs] We never open it.

Grizzly

It's hard to tell if the picture on the front cover is a whirlpool that leads down to the Dark Depth-

Charlie

Oh, fuck off dude. There's no fucking shot that the cover is just an asshole.

Bizly

The wording starts off really, really vague. It doesn't actually say anything specific. "Who knows how deep the hole goes? And once one comes into it."

Charlie

I like to think also that the words are text-wrapped around the hole.

Condi

Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Charlie

What did you say? There was a dice bag as well.

Grizzly

Yeah, it's like a velvet, almost like a dice bag. You pick it up and you can hear some ringing inside of it.

Charlie

Okay, I'll take a little peek.

Grizzly

It's weird because when you hold it, it feels like there's something in there. When you shake it around, there's something clinking. When you peek into it, there's nothing inside the bag.

Gillion

I don't really like the texture of velvet. Does anyone want this? It's a bag that sounds like it has things in it, but if you look in it, there's no things.

Jay

That's strange.

Gillion

Here, does it feel like there's things in it?

Charlie

Throw it at chip.

Condi

I catch it instead of him.

Bizly

I fucking tackle her out of the way.

Chip

That's my bag!

Jay

I wanted that- AH!

Grizzly

Okay, contested dexterity checks.

Condi

15.

Bizly

22.

Condi

Well, who do you think you are?

Chip

Pressure point!

Bizly

You freeze for the next five minutes. Grab the bag.

Chip

It feels like there's something in it.

Bizly

I look in it.

Grizzly

There's nothing in it.

Chip

I don't see anything in it!

Gillion

I know, but it feels like there's something in it.

Chip

Jay, you check it out. Do you feel something in it?

Bizly

I hold it in front of her.

Chip

Jay, oh right, pressure point.

Bizly

I just pass it back to Gillion.

Charlie

I look inside.

Gillion

There's nothing in this.

Charlie

Yeah, I'll tuck it away. I'll put mysterious bag with things, but not things in it.

Condi

With nothing but everything in it.

Gillion

All right, who's up next for the haircut? You did a wonderful job, by the way. Thank you so much.

Condi

I just imagine I'm frozen. I think I was already strapped in, but...

Charlie

Oh, yeah, you're pressure pointed, so you can't even resist. Yeah, it's over.

Grizzly

You tuck that mysterious bag away, and the excitement dies down as all of you have sorted through what was left in this box by Captain Rose. And you do see there is a ton of gold and stuff in there, but it's distracted by the items that you're holding and wondering what they do. Most curiously, what is inside the envelope that Chip found and what the shell, the callnch shell, is used for or connected to. While you're pondering that Jay's hairdressing gets finished, as I guess there's only two of you that can really get the makeover. Igneous is made of rock and I don't know how that works. And Chip is dead. So if you want to describe what she.

Condi

Looks like. I mean, it's called the Elling Braid. It's a braid that goes down from the mid section of the top of her head down to just the lower part of the neck into a bun that has another braid coming out of it from the left that reaches down to behind the shoulder.

Grizzly

Oh, sick. That's fucking awesome.

Charlie

I actually used one of my super reactions on that. That's how you know it's good.

Condi

I'm really glad.

Grizzly

You guys look, unironically, fucking slay right now. You look so good.

Charlie

Fuck, yeah.

Grizzly

Jarski shuts the treasure chest and goes,

Jarski

Well, I think that's everything that they left behind.

Jay

What about all the money and gold in there?

Jarski

I'll accept it as payment for protecting this for so long.

Jay

Yeah, I guess that works. Yeah, that actually tracks.

Gillion

Hey, we did get these awesome haircuts and a pretty cool shower.

Jay

I think that's payment enough. Yeah, yeah.

Chip

Well, we could take some of it, right?

Jay

We are actually-

Grizzly

He's smiling and then he's really straight face.

Jay

-little known fact that we don't often talk about, but we are in horrendous amounts of debt.

Gillion

Ooo. I thought if I had forgotten about that, it would go away.

Jay

That's not how that works. We haven't seen the Loan Sharks yet.

Gillion

Well, then maybe they're not there and we can keep spending and winning big. You don't need to worry about it. We're totally okay and responsible with money. You can have it all.

Jarski

I wasn't going to give it to you.

Jay

One coin as memorabilia.

Jarski

So when will you be leaving?

Jay

Okay, yeah, I mean, I guess we can just leave now. It seems like we've over said our welcome a little bit.

Bizly

I look over at Igneous. I just make eye contact like, what's up? If he takes notice of me, I'll look over at the chest and the back of the head and say what's up.

Grizzly

Yeah, he hits the blunt rotation.

Igneous

[Transylvanian accent] What are you staring at me for my friend?

Charlie

Oh, no.

Chip

Did you hit the accent weed?

Igneous

Just now. Oh, my dude. Yes, are you ready to get going? I think we've got what you're looking for. Look at the envelope.

Igneous

This does not fit Igneous at all.

Chip

Holy shit. It changed your personality too, man. What the hell?

Jay

This isn't right.

Igneous

[Normal Voice] I'm glad it just wore off. It wore off fast. You have to hit it multiple times.

Gillion

Thank God, too. Thank God it does.

Grizzly

Reebo, he says,

Reebo

I have some if you want to take it with you.

Chip

I would love to keep that in my back pocket for a later bit.

Gillion

Hundred percent. I think we should all actually have one of these.

Chip

I'm about to hot box the ship and make everybody British.

Jay

That's too far!

Grizzly

Okay, you get a little baggy of accent-changing, accent-switching, kush. Incredible item.

Charlie

[As Gillion] We're coming for you, the Niklaus. [Laughter]

Grizzly

You know he sold that shit.

Bizly

I'm just looking at Igneous. I'm trying to-I'm trying to convey that maybe what if we take that shit? What's up? What do you think?

Grizzly

He just looks at you like he doesn't really want to fight with these guys, and they look like they'll fight over the gold.

Condi

I don't really want to fight over the gold. These guys are chill. They're chill. They helped us. They melted your skin off.

Grizzly

And Jarski says,

Jarski

Well, you know it's still the Black Sea. I guess you could stay if you want, but we're not really going anywhere.

Chip

How long have you guys been up here?

Jarski

It's pretty hard to keep track of time.

Chip

But those are years, right? A lot of years.

Jarski

Quite a while. But now that we don't have to protect this chest anymore, we can-

Chip

But where would you even go? You know?

Jarski

Probably to the sky.

Chip

What are you going to do with gold in the sky, Jarski? Is all I'm trying to say. Wouldn't you be at that point a little above that?

Jarski

Whenever you're crossing from the ground level to the cloud level, there's usually some toll.

Jay

They got tolls everywhere nowadays.

Chip

How would you know that?

Jarski

Before we were stuck here doing this favor for Captain Rose, we were on this quest. Well, I guess it was the Ice Queen's quest, but I'm still very interested in what's supposed to be great cloud, storm, mountain giants made of the elements, living in these giant cities in the clouds.

Chip

But you don't need all that, right? Because you're going to be around giants and stuff. Giants don't need gold. They need giant money. All I'm saying is you guys have been up here a while. Things have changed down there, really, and up there, I'm sure.

Jarski

How much gold do you have?

Chip

Like a ton, like all the time.

Jarski

So you don't really need this, do you?

Chip

What? It's on my other boat is the thing. It's my other boat. I got two boats, and when I transfer from one boat to the other boat, one is my gold boat and my other is the normal boat. And it takes a lot of effort and time to get from my gold boat to the normal boat. So I try to keep a little bit of gold on the normal boat.

Jay

Chip. We just looted the entire castle, the entire castle of what was it called.

Jarski

What was that? You just looted. So ya have tons of stuff already. Not much gold in the protecting the Captain Rose legacy box for goddesses know how long.

Chip

No, you're right. You deserve a reward of some kind.

Jarski

You got something better than all the gold in the box?

Chip

Yes, I do. Worth far more than any gold.

Bizly

I pull out a lute.

Chip

A song.

Gillion

Oh god.

Jay

Gill, if they start beating the shit out of Chip, what's the plan?

Gillion

I mean, I guess we could together maybe pick up that giant chocolate statue and run.

Jay

I like that, yeah.

Chip

This song has been passed down for generations, and everyone who hears its melody is granted wisdom.

Jarski

All right, let's hear it.

Chip

I need to set the stage properly.

Bizly

I'd like to move away from the box.

Grizzly

Yeah, just so to clarify. His boot, his foot is on the box. Now, he just shut it with his foot.

Bizly

I'd like to walk far away and say,

Chip

You need to come over here where the acoustics are better.

Bizly

I go,

Chip

[Singing] Ha ha. No, the acoustics really aren't right good right here. I feel like, yeah, it's like- Ah! -Right over there is the sweet spot. It's not going to come across right. You're not going to get the wisdom.

Grizzly

Roll deception.

Bizly

Okay, 18. I only have a plus three. There's no reliable talent here. This is all rolls, baby.

Condi

I'm not helping with this. You're on your own.

Charlie

[Crosstalk] No, you're on your own, man.

Condi

But that giant golden chocolate statue, maybe a different story.

Charlie

That. That we can...

Bizly

Can you guys help me in some way here?

Condi

No, these people were nice and they cured me of my corruption.

Bizly

Dude, we're pirates. We got to do some pirate shit.

Charlie

We did some pirate shit, man. We fought these guys. We sailed all the way here.

Bizly

They beat the shit out of us, gave us some of the treasure we were supposed to get, and burned my skin off.

Grizzly

It's not their fault.

Bizly

I mean, it's happening now, guys. You got to-

Charlie

Dude I don't even know who you are anymore, man. You're a fucking skeleton. You're a fucking stealing shit. You're a fucking skeleton stealing shit.

Bizly

[Exasperated] I'm not stealing this chest is for us.

Grizzly

Mike comes up wherever you are.

Mike

Yeah, I want to hear it!

Grizzly

He comes up, stands next to you, Jarski rolls a Natural 19.

Jarski

I can hear you from over here. How about you start playing it? And we'll see if this gives me the wisdom better than what say, probably like 400 gold.

Chip

Wait, what? Four hundred gold?

Jarski

That's what I see. Just eyeballing it.

Chip

That's it? That's all this? I thought there were like gems and stuff.

Jarski

That's a lot of gold.

Chip

Screw this. Whatever.

Bizly

I leave.

Gillion

Wait, wait, wait, wait. What's the song?

Bizly

Throw down the lute.

Chip

Fucking 400 gold.

Jarski

Wait, so you were lying?

Chip

You guys suck. You were supposed to help me.

Bizly

I look like Gillion.

Chip

Where were you, man?

Gillion

Well, I don't know the song.

Bizly

I look like Jay.

Chip

What were you doing? And Igneous? Stop smoking that weed, man. You sound weird with it.

Igneous

(Takes a hit) [Mafia boss-esc voice] I don't know what you're talking about. I sound-

Chip

Let's get out of here. Thanks for this stuff. Keep the 400 gold.

Gillion

Thank you, guys. Can I have one of the beanbags? One of these Captain Rose's marketable beanbags.

Chip

I'm taking a beanbag.

Gillion

All right, we've already got a beanbag.

Chip

[Grumbling] Let's sell this for 400 fucking gold.

Grizzly

You take the beanbag with the bean mushroom bag with Captain Rose's face on it?

Condi

I grab one of their printable T-shirts that has Captain Rose's face on it out of the gift shop on the way out.

Charlie

Yeah, I get like a little Disneyland automated fan with Captain Rose's face on it. This guy's fucking tongue out. He spins around and blows on me.

Bizly

And then we go down and then we leave and then we leave and then we leave and then we go on.

Grizzly

Gillion, Jay on your guy's way out, Floski does all of the moving the ice and stuff to create the doorways. They quietly thank you both for letting them do your hair and work on it.

Condi

No, I thank her.

Gillion

Oh, shit, guys, by the way, I don't know if this is super appropriate of me to ask, but it's like the only thing good that's happened on this island in a long time. But if you guys are still in town, there's a little wedding. There'll probably be an after-party or something if you want to see something fun and get out of the Thave.

Jarski

A wedding in the black Sea?

Bizly

I know. It doesn't sound like something you'd want to miss does it?

Jarski

We'll think about it.

Grizzly

And you see now that you're out there and the lake hasn't completely frozen over again, although it is working on it from the edges. So you do have to get back on a little boat to go across back and then back down, which we're not going to play out because you might die.

Condi

Yeah.

Grizzly

And as you guys, unless there's anything else you want to say or do, you could to the edge. The boat almost magically turns back around and then starts to go back. It's being carried by a current and you hear carried through the wind, like shout it out.

Jarski

See you later! Thanks for the 5,000 gold!

Chip

Five Thou... You motherfuckers owe me money.

Gillion

No, thank you. These guys are great, Chip.

Bizly

I'm looking at Gillion just angry.

Grizzly

Following Igneous' lead, head back down, do you have a spell as well to summon Lucy?

Charlie

I totally do. Yeah, yeah.

Grizzly

You definitely don't have to.

Charlie

No. No. Lucy's coming back. [Sludge sounds]

Gillion

Yes!

Grizzly

It comes all the way.

Lucy

Big Brother.

Gillion

Oh, little sister. I'm sorry you went down the drain.

Grizzly

I'm going to say that helps you all get down the mountain way easier than it was to get up and following Igneous to get back through the forest of mushrooms, the town, the river, cross past the egg village of the hideout, and those abandoned port towns before it. And you see you get to the Spider Lily capital and there are these... and you are able to follow Ines because he's able to track so well, different footsteps and stuff. This little that they carved their way through that is safe all the way from the entrance to the palace. It does start to get quite late at this point because of just how long travel has taken, which is fine. A little nighttime wedding never killed anybody. You arrive at those giant, massive fucking doors to the palace and just enter in. [Large door creaking open]

Gillion

Oh, sorry, that was Lucy.

Jay

They actually oiled the doors so they don't make a single sound.

Gillion

She howls sometimes.

Grizzly

Most of it looks the same. There's still like cobwebs everywhere and the weird fucking abnormal, thick, black, stringy webs from the spiders here. But there are, I guess, some wilted some not these white and yellow petals that lead up the steps that help guide you guys towards the chamber where they want to hold this and that way they've cleared out, cleaned out, and done their best to arrange what looks like it's very haphazardly. It's not perfect, right? Because you're in this very decayed building. But there are places to sit. There's like a little altar, I think that's what it's called, or wherever they stand under. And you don't see either of them yet, but you do see like a little podium just under that little wreath, that's an archway where Gillion can stand into the ceremony style. And you see the few survivors, most of the ones that I described are all here, or all the ones I described are all the ones I described here. There's a few that you didn't meet that are around and scattered. It's maybe like 10, 15, or 20 people. And yeah, you guys are free to prepare or wait or sit or whatever you want to do.

Charlie

I was going to say if I can use the decanter of Endless Water and Shapewater to pretty it up and make ice pillars and seats for people.

Grizzly

Oh, that's so cool.

Charlie

You know Like a bigger archway. Anything I can do to surprise them and make it even nicer than it is. Just accenting what they already have. I'd love to do that.

Grizzly

Yeah, absolutely.

Condi

Would you allow me to change what spells I have prepared for this for role-play reasons and nothing else, really?

Grizzly

Yeah.

Charlie

I've had Ceremony ever since they talked about getting married because I was so scared this day would come and I would forget to have it.

Grizzly

Just for this one, for the occasion.

Bizly

I'm going to look around the castle for a kitchen area, and I'm going to prepare some food. I will prepare hot dogs wrapped in crescent rolls.

Grizzly

A little difficult because of just the amount of resources.

Bizly

Whatever I can get to look like pigs in a blanket, that.

Grizzly

It's like a professional chef because you're finding scraps and turning them into something presentable.

Condi

Can I like, be there and cast, Purify Food and Drink on whatever he uses?

Grizzly

Yeah, you can help out.

Bizly

I make a YouTube short. "I made this primordial ooze, gourmet."

Grizzly

I'll just say, chip roll survival.

Bizly

With my reliable talent, this is dirty 20.

Grizzly

I'll say that you can make finger food for this pre-session. I don't know if that's the right word, but before they actually begin the ceremony, this is what you guys are able to make for everybody. Because that's about what you could probably do here. That makes sense in this abandoned and discrepate castle or palace.

Bizly

When people start to like before the ceremony goes on, is there anybody who looks knowledgeable? Because I'm looking for something and I want to ask around.

Grizzly

Just roll investigation real quick.

Bizly

This is something I swear to God. 23.

Grizzly

There is an ex, not an ex, but someone that looks like they used to be a professor or a teacher here. It's the Spring Eladrin Elf that I described. There's Tricelle Rolfaera. I'm pretty sure it is their name. Tricell. Yeah, you see Queen sitting next to both Gryffon and the blacksmith. Just chatting, doing a little better than earlier.

Bizly

Okay.

Grizzly

Obviously been cheered up a little bit. That's good. Despite the blacksmith, but you know, as a woman of a few words. And then, yes, you walk up to the spring, Elidrin, Tricell, and she's like deep in a book sitting and waiting for things to begin.

Bizly

As I walk up, I'll just say,

Chip

Excuse me. I don't mean to bother you.

Tricelle

Yes?

Chip

You just look like you might-

Tricelle

No worries. No.

Chip

-know what I'm looking for. I'm wondering if anywhere in this area you might know of, this might sound strange, a fruit that would be rare and specific to the region. See, we had a friend who likes to get these exotic fruits and make juices out of them, and I wanted to bring something back for him.

Tricelle

On the cliff above the palace, there used to be an orchard filled with fruit, but since our Island has died. A lot of it is gone. You'd be lucky to find something fruity anymore. Even my hair is wilting in this environment.

Grizzly

You know, our hair is made of vines and leaves and petals and stuff.

Chip

Hopefully we'll be able to get you guys out of here, but-

Tricelle

That would be a miracle. This is not a powerful enough sorcerer or wizard in the vicinity, not for a very long time.

Chip

We've got a way.

Tricelle

Really?

Chip

Maybe we'll save it and let them have their moment for now, but we're working on something.

Grizzly

I mean, without even insight, she doesn't even really believe you.

Bizly

That's okay. I just say "Thank you" and I walk on.

Grizzly

I'm just going to tell you there's no fruit on this island to find. Like it is so- I've described everything as blighted, and it's all dead.

Bizly

Worth a shot.

Grizzly

Well, Igneous does come up to you, Chip, and he's like,

Igneous

So, I got to be the best man. I don't know if I'm suited literally to do that.

Bizly

I'd take off the bandana.

Grizzly

Oh, no.

Charlie

Oh, God.

Bizly

And I get up close to his head, really close to him, and he can see the skin, the flake that is flaked away and disgusting.

Igneous

Oh, hell no.

Jay

Dude, this is a wedding. This is a wedding Chip.

Bizly

And tie it up around his head.

Igneous

What are you going to do? You can't go in there looking like that.

Chip

Why not?

Grizzly

You're just like- [wheezing]

Igneous

If you go in and they see you, you will crash the wedding by existing.

Jay

Oh, so your skin fall off into the fucking pigs with blankets. What's it called?

Chip

You know, it looked like this the whole time, right?

Gillion

What are you guys talking about? Foul creature of the night!

Charlie

Tackle them out of a window.

Grizzly

You tackle them through a window that's on the same floor so you guys don't risk your lives.

Bizly

I'd like to put up- wear a cloak. I'd like to wear a cloak.

Charlie

They're going to look up and it's going to be like death is watching them. They're going to see a cloaked figure like a fucking half a skull.

Bizly

You just see my hand and you see a mechanical pinky attached, like barely to an entire skeletal hand.

Grizzly

We'll put homey in the back.

Condi

There's three rows that are full of people and then 16 rows and all the way in the back. This is this cloaked figure. This ominous stench coming off of him.

Charlie

Chip's never going to shower again due to this trauma, man.

Grizzly

You have the cloak that Gillion uses at All-Port that you can use. You see, for a moment, Igneous thinks about what he should look like, and he goes,

Igneous

I'm not really good with this whole style part. I mean, I usually keep it pretty simple.

Chip

[Extremely gravelly/nasally dark voice] Just think of like a tux or something.

Jay

What happened to your voice?

Gillion

What the actual fuck?

Chip

I just wanted to fit the look.

Charlie

Oh god.

Chip

I smoked the weed.

Charlie

Yeah, okay. Oh, thank God.

Condi

I thought that was permanent.

Charlie

Because I would not have been able to handle this.

Chip

No, I still have more.

Grizzly

He ends up in a black suit that fits black with red accents and some white in there fitting their colors. There's black, gold, red, and white. There's spider lily, patterning and designs and a little napkin that is red. What is it? Fucking handkerchief that is in the pocket.

Igneous

Right well appreciate that. I really don't know if this is worth-

Chip

any time.

Bizly

And I put my bone hand on his arm.

Charlie

[Distant] -jesus.

Bizly

Friend.

Jay

This weed is lasting a lot longer than normal.

Chip

This is the forever accent weed.

Igneous

Just hang out in the back a little, bro.

Chip

Okay, big bro.

Bizly

And I hobble my way over to the back. Okay, so I want to stand in the doorway. I want to have a stick that I use to walk. And then as people walk in, I slowly lift up my arm and point my skeletal hand towards their seat. I'm the usher, and I look like that.

Charlie

It's like an usher into the afterlife, man.

Grizzly

A few straggling survivors who were taking a look around the palace come in and they walk in, they see this, they fucking scream.

Chip

Right this way.

Bizly

I'm pointing over at the food.

Chip

Make sure to try the pigs in the blanket. There's only a little bit of skin in them.

Condi

Nobody- not a single pig in the blanket is eaten

Bizly

Untouched.

Condi

Untouched.

Bizly

I walk up to Jay and I go,

Chip

Do you want me to walk you down the aisle, sweetie?

Jay

I'm not getting married.

Chip

It's your big day.

Jay

It's not my big day.

Chip

I'm so proud of you.

Bizly

And I hold out my decrepit hand at you.

Condi

Slowly push it away.

Chip

Don't deny this. This is every father's dream.

Jay

I mean, you're not my father, and I'm not getting married, but maybe someday.

Chip

So I could get to walk you down the aisle like this?

Jay

No, I'll probably choose what is Gillion.

Chip

What the fuck? What does Gillion have that I don't? I feel like I'm the full package as far as this is concerned.

Jay

What is this? What is this exactly?

Chip

I feel like I have a very fatherly energy.

Jay

No, I actually don't think either of you really have a fatherly energy. I guess you had Ollie for a while and maybe you channeled some of it there.

Chip

That was more like a big brother thing.

Jay

Yeah, okay.

Chip

I don't know why I look the apart. I'm father of death kind of looking.

Jay

Yeah, but I mean, by the time I get married, hopefully that wouldn't be the case if I get married. I don't know if-

Chip

What, you don't believe in marriage?

Jay

No, it's not that.

Chip

You don't believe in the beautiful union between two becoming one?

Jay

I mean, it's hard to meet somebody when you're out at ... sea like this.

Gillion

Hey, what the fuck are you guys talking about?

Jay

I don't know. It's getting a little introspective now. I'm going to be alone forever.

Gillion

I'm looking over all this stuff. It's been a minute since I did this, and the last time I did this, I was fucking sloshed. I'm just realizing we need a ring-bearer. You're already the usher Chip. Is that something you'd like to do, Jay, or should I get Lucy?

Jay

Why don't we get... I mean, it should be their friends.

Gillion

All right, all right. Let's get knock as the ring-bearer. That's awesome.

Chip

Now that I think about it, who would marry me like this? I would not marry this.

Grizzly

That's going to be your one motivation to fix it.

Chip

I'm going to be alone forever.

Gillion

Well, I can think of one person,

Chip

Who?

Gillion

Who might want to see you again.

Chip

Who?

Gillion

Who you are forever bound to by the threat of fate irreversibly.

Chip

Gillion, do you think your sister is more of a looks gal or more of who you are on the inside?

Gillion

[Darker more serious tone] What floor do you think we're on?

Chip

Uhhh...

Gillion

Let's find out.

Charlie

I tackle him out the window.

Grizzly

We're going to play our hearts out and we are going to make this the most believable, lovable wedding in the darkest arc of the show. Eventually, it seems like Zamia and Star were getting ready separately with outfits made by both Queen and the blacksmith together, sort of in a combination as fast as they could with whatever they had, but as well-made as possible. Gillion, you stand at the front under that little archway that is covered in these black and red spider lilies. And Queen is in the room. And once it seems like everybody is here, you also notice in the crowd from where you're standing and killing, you do see Green is here. You don't see the Yeti Pirates and you see all the survivors and people that you met, including Petlen, the rabbit and stuff. And Green begins very gently taking out their oboe and they enchanted with some magic. And when they play it, it sounds like a piano. Softly, they begin to play some tune. And everyone gets quiet when it starts playing because they can tell the brides are soon to walk out. [Giddy] Who's going to come out first? Who knows? It doesn't matter. We're about to see!

Condi

I'm at the edge of my seat.

Grizzly

Who you see first, and everyone looks behind them when they're sitting in these chairs, you see Igneous walking by himself. He just walks. He looks very like upright. The most proper Igneous has presented himself. Clearly has a lot of respect and a lot of passion for this. And he comes down the aisle with a smile. He goes to the left side of Gillion and stands there. Next figure that you guys see come is actually a Knock, the Kenku. And she's holding a little pillow, I guess. It's ragged and stuff because of, again, where we are. It's what they could find and they're holding it. And there are two bands that it looks like they've been recently forged. One of them is Silver with a black band, the other one is gold with a black band.

Condi

We have gems in our inventory. Can I just take a certain amount of money out and say we gave them some gems, like to put on the rings?

Grizzly

Yeah sure.

Bizly

We're just giving away all our shit.

Condi

Dude, you're fine.

Bizly

And we're getting nothing.

Condi

Dude, we're getting the joy and happiness of watching Holy Matrimony, okay?

Grizzly

How much gold in relation to gems you want to give each of the rings?

Condi

250 gold each. Why not 500 gold total? Fuck it.

Bizly

I have 100 gold in my inventory.

Grizzly

250 gold rings. Wow. Okay, so you hand these gems to Alasse, who actually asked for gems. They forge, I don't have the exact details or colors, but basically the gem stones on these silver metal rings would probably match whatever the equivalent of birth stones is in Riptide. It's different because the months are different, but something like that. That's what Knock brings to the front. Then the music that Queen is playing switches. You see two very beautiful women walk out together and these Zamia is wearing this black, mostly black suit that has some red accents. Again, very similar to what Igneous is wearing, although a lot more decorated. It looks really good, especially with what they had. And next to her is Star. They're walking out together. They're both holding these bouquets, they're holding hands. And Star is wearing similar to their robes, similar colors, white and gold, very similar to what they wear as a cleric of Daphne Palace. They walk together and everyone in the audience has a... This is definitely a bright moment for all these people who have gotten closer to our survivors and just survived in general, for them to take this initiative and do something that is for normal people outside of this very apocalyptic setting that they have had to live through for the past 10 years. And they walk, you can tell Star is already trying not to cry, right? Because, yeah, Zamia, stoic but gentle. And they both make it to the front in front of you, Gillion, and they turn to face each other and Noc just rests at their like knees, you know?

Knock

Yeah. Yeah.

Grizzly

It's what you hear from them.

Gillion

Okay, settle down.

Charlie

Pull up my little...

Gillion

Oh, wrong book.

Charlie

I put the wrong one back in. Pull up my little fish Bible.

Gillion

We gather here today under the light of Lunadeyis to unite two beautiful souls in holy matrimony irreversibly.

Charlie

Lock eye contact with Chip.

Bizly

You can't see my eyes I'm bones and dust.

Grizzly

He's in this dark cloak in the background.

Gillion

In the darkest of places, these two have come together within this palace to show the world true love and light. Do you, Zamia, takes Star to have and to hold to weather the darkest storms and strongest tides together.

Zamia

Of course, I too.

Gillion

And you, Star, do you take Zamia for all of that stuff too.

Jay

Gillion, come on.

Gillion

It's how it's written.

Jay

Okay, never mind.

Star

I do.

Gillion

And do you two both have your vows and mating dances prepared?

Grizzly

You get a nod from Star.

Charlie

I gesture.

Grizzly

Go ahead. You may recite your vows.

Grizzly

It looks like Star was going to speak and begin, but she gets overwhelmed in the moment, just with emotion. Zamia notices this, grabs both of her hands very, very quickly, reads the situation instantly, and then begins to speak.

Zamia

Star, it feels selfish of me to want to be the only one you shine on. But you have always been and are everyone's light. And I would never want to change you. I will, however, promise to you an unrelenting devotion. To be honest, even if some truths cause pain, to care for you above all others, but still show all others the compassion you have taught me. To never again lose my courage, for none of my fears would be worse than disappointing you or losing you. To pledge this eternal oath and to love you and to learn to love every new you as we grow together forever.

Grizzly

She broke a little bit at the end there, and these streaks wet, Star's face, just wet now. Takes her a minute to get herself together the way she can speak through that choked-up feeling in her throat.

Star

Zamia, [Chokes up] you are the anchor that keeps my very soul from drifting too far away. When I get lost so often, you are the strongest woman I have ever known. And we are all alive because of how long you stayed strong when we could not. More than that. You give me the purest and truest love. I can only hope to return, I promise. To try my hardest to be my best self. To give you my patience when you are overwhelmed or ever upset. To learn and bloom with you and to support you, to give you a very special place in my life no one could ever feel. To heal all your wounds no matter how many times, how many hits you shrug off, to protect you in the quietest corners of our room where you won't let others see, to cherish your radiance and remind you of your beauty every day, forever and always.

Grizzly

Two of them finish their vows. Just there's some fucking someone who's like, snot, ugly crying in the audience right now.

Condi

It's Jay.

Grizzly

It's Jay.

Gillion

And now, may the ringbearer bring forward the rings?

Knock

Yeah, yeah.

[Laughter]

Charlie

What?

Grizzly

Knock, flutters up, holds them up in between the two of them, and they gingerly grab each other's opposite rings and then place them on their fingers together.

Charlie

I hold my hands over both of the rings, and they both begin to glow as does this podium they're on and as they do as well. And I say,

Gillion

May you both be each other's destinys for now and always.

Charlie

And I cast the wedding ceremony.

Gillion

[Hushed tone] Legally required to tell you as well for the next seven days your AC is increased by two. It does wear off after that, and it will not take effect again unless you are legally widowed, in which case it can be recast again.

Charlie

I step back from them after doing that.

Gillion

So here is where usually in undersea culture, I would say, "You may now release your spawn." [Laughing] But that doesn't really seem super appropriate. So we're switching it last minute. You may now kiss the bride. You may now mack it.

Grizzly

Yeah, they fucking mack it. The two rings glow, and you see that so do both of their eyes. This divinity from both a C`leric and a Paladin who has taken a new oath. And when they share their embrace, a glowing ring emits from the two of them above their heads, and it does fill this chamber with light. And everyone can see everything. It burns, chip.

Bizly

I turn to dust in the back. I'm dust.

Charlie

It's so funny. Just can you imagine [Screeching]...

Bizly

I open it up. I open up the hood, [Light screaming] and I just think, turned gray and start to crumble, and you see the robe hit the floor.

Grizzly

This moment lingers on everyone in the room for a while and to break this silent spotlight, which the two of them don't seem to handle very well. Star whips around towards everybody and says, Screams out, "Let's celebrate!" And then she magically holding Zamia's hand, using some of their combined power, brings forth this magnificent feast, like a fucking magical table, apperates.

Charlie

It destroys Chip's food.

Condi

And Queen's like, "Yeah, let's party!" And then you hear, party rock, and everybody starts dancing. That's my wedding experience. That's the only thing I've ever experienced is Party Rock Anthem, first thing.

Bizly

I'm picking up the pigs-in-a-blanket off the floor, just retreating into the corner and eating them.

Grizzly

Was there something Jay wanted to do post-ceremony as well?

Condi

It'll be a way to see through the ceiling because I think that would be cool if there was. It's like open ceiling concept here.

Grizzly

You can explode it.

Condi

We flashback and I did some pre-wedding demolition.

Bizly

Debris falls down, eight guests are crushed underneath.

Grizzly

Wait, maybe-

Charlie

You rigged it with explosives?

Condi

No, no, no, no, no, you're misunderstanding. You're misunderstanding. No!

Gillion

Newly-wed's, get down!

Condi

Okay, I mean, technically what I had involved explosives, but it's not like that. It's not like I was going to blow them up.

Grizzly

There's a skylight. That's all you get. There's a skylight.

Condi

Oh, no. And I had them timed perfectly because I activated them myself with my magical powers and they fly into the air and exploded to beautiful fireworks and across the sky using the spell Sky Write. It says, "Zamia and Star" bright enough for the entire goddamn Black Sea to see. A moment of light within this dark, twisted hellhole and that's-

Grizzly

You do that. It attracts every hollowed within a 100-mile radius, and then get swarmed.

Charlie

You know what? Whatever.

Condi

We can handle a few, a hollowed.

Grizzly

No, I'm kidding. Once again, this hero's feast, that's the spell, explodes out, and everyone here is able to enjoy real food and drink for the first time for a lot of these people in a while.

Condi

I guess a little ways into the celebration, since we never really brought it up earlier, I would probably stand up somewhere and clank my glass and be like,

Jay

Uhm, hello, everybody. Just like to give a quick toast to the lovely brides.

Igneous

Oh, no, she absolutely wasted.

Bizly

How many of those have you had?

Jay

You guys are awesome. You know that? I mean, Star, you hadn't come in with the explodey balls I would be-

Gillion

Oh, Jesus.

Jay

-like chip over that in a corner, eating Pigs-in-a-blanket.

Chip

[Hissing]

Bizly

I'm hissing and I lean down and I start shoving them into my face.

Grizzly

Chip, you got your bandana back. You got your bandana back. You got your bandana back.

Bizly

Did I get it back? I lean down, I put it back on. I whipped back around. My hair flows.

Jay

I'm not actually wasted. I'm just fucking around, obviously. But I would like to at least take this chance to say that... I don't know how I want to word this. This is really awkward that we didn't tell you guys earlier that we had this miraculous means of escaping the Dark Sea on our ship this entire time. We knew that and we just never said a word. It just slipped our mind.

Gillion

Yeah! [Clapping]

Chip

Anyways, we're going to get you guys out of the Black Sea. At any cost.

Jay

No cost. At no cost.

Chip

No, not at a cost. I'm not charging you.

Jay

You're a terrible person.

Chip

By any means.

Grizzly

No one has actually said the specifics yet. So Star just shouts out.

Star

I get this is a celebration, but it's not all that. We can't do that much magic.

Jay

Oh, yeah, we have a teleporter.

Chip

It's on our boat.

Jay

Yeah, it's on our boat. And it connects to an island known as Canella, near the City of Zero. We have a wonderful lady over there named Enza. She's just a brilliant, brilliant woman, knows all about technology and making teleporters work they do work-

Chip

Super normal island.

Jay

-very normal island.

Chip

Super normal place.

Jay

In the south? It's the South Sea, I think it is in the south. I should know this.

Gillion

Vibe's a little weird now. Thanks, Jay.

Gillion

Sorry, I'm actually a little bit drunk.

Igneous

I'll fucking do it.

Grizzly

No, you finish, there's silent for a good 30 seconds. You hear silverware drop, and then you hear very quietly,

Gryffon

Vouch.

Jay

Thank you, Gryffon.

Grizzly

Smash cut. Everybody is getting wheeled onto the fucking ship.

Condi

It's like 30 seconds of awkward silence. Cutlery falling and then smash cut.

Condi

Somebody goes,

Wedding Guest

[In disbelief] What?

Grizzly

Yeah, and then I just fucking cuts. Is there anything else you guys want to do here before you start sending people home with your teleporter?

Gillion

I just wanted to say congratulations to them and ask if anyone else wanted to spontaneously get married or come of age.

Jay

I know, chip and Igneous were talking about it earlier.

Chip

Igneous didn't want it.

Jay

Igneous

Still hasn't changed.

Chip

Nobody want me.

Charlie

Yeah, no, I just congratulate them.

Grizzly

So for the night, if there's nothing else you guys wanted to do, everybody long rests inside the palace as it's mostly safe now. Everyone's all good except Chip. Chip make your intelligence saving throw as you don't sleep but rest and just mull over in your mind trying to think of all of Chip's past memories as far back as you can and just not lose yourself.

Bizly

Natural 20.

Charlie

Woah, nice.

Bizly

So 31.

Grizzly

With a natural 20, obviously, you succeed, you don't feel yourself losing that key part of what makes Chip, Chip. And even because you roll Natural 20, doesn't feel like it's going to get harder to remember. You got it.

Bizly

Nice

Grizzly

If you want to explain why, you can. Otherwise, we're moving on.

Bizly

Maybe just looking down at the ring and seeing the wave slosh around in there.

Grizzly

That's beautiful. With that, the next day, you guys start heading back with all of the survivors to your ship. You have to contact Drey to figure out where it is. They steer it basically like paddle it together. Finn, Earl, Drey's feet, paddle this giant ship, this caravel towards the middle dock where you guys meet up and you start funneling people into the teleporter. Do you guys want to say anything like goodbye, any last words? You immediately get a call from Enza as soon as the first batch of 10 people go through. I'm going to say it has to be in batches. Just for this once, I'll allow more people than normal. As soon as they come through, Enza, you get your call and she's like,

Enza

What the fuck?

Grizzly

You're like, there's people that's coming into her house.

Enza

I can't fit this many people in my fucking house.

Jay

Let's build another one.

Enza

Girl-

Condi

It just hangs up. That's literally it.

Condi

I look to Zamia and I give her a smile. I'd stare her in the eyes and I'd say,

Jay

Traitor!

Condi

And throw her off the ship. No, that doesn't happen. I was just thinking about memories of Zamia. It was a hallway. It was just a hallway. It was the only hallway.

Charlie

Oh, dude, fuck the fucking hallway.

Grizzly

You're scaring me, man. First the explosives-

Condi

Dude, sorry, I'm just particularly on edge.

Charlie

Yeah, something's up with Jay, tonight.

Condi

I just wanted to actually quickly talk to Zamia and say,

Jay

Hey, I know it was probably a little scary a few times, especially towards the end, but I'm glad you trusted us enough to save everybody and kill those pirates, yada, yada. I'm not really good at being sentimental right now. It's just like a whole thing.

Grizzly

She puts her hand on your shoulder. It's a very firm pat. She says,

Zamia

Be careful. Especially with who knows about this teleportation machine on your ship. It is more valuable than this ocean than any amount of gold.

Jay

Yeah, that's a good point.

Chip

Shit, that would have worked.

Jay

It was good knowing you. Even though a lot of it was... I mean, we'll see each other again. You're just going to Canella unless you move out of Canella.

Zamia

We have a chance at life. Now we'll see where it goes. Thanks.

Condi

I'd just give her a nod.

Bizly

All right, I'd like to go find Green.

Grizzly

Oh, yeah. Yeah, he was in the audience.

Bizly

I go up to him. I turn him around. I grab him on the shoulders.

Chip

You will find a small mountain dwarf. He will be angry. He will be drunk. You will befriend him. Go.

Bizly

And I walk away.

Green

[Nervously breathing] ...what...?

Gillion

It is your fate.

Charlie

And then I just step into the shadows and disappear forever.

Grizzly

Yeah, I'm going to say Green actually does get into the teleporter and goes, but would you like to do Gillion?

Charlie

I just wanted to say something real quick to Zamia.

Gillion

See? You didn't have anything to be worried about. Looks like you found yourself a new Oath, Paladin.

Grizzly

She hits you with a predator handshake, the classic superheroic handshake-

Charlie

Oh, shit!

Grizzly

And she looks into your eyes for a moment and she says,

Zamia

How have you done it? Been so devoted to your oath.

Gillion

I think when things seem worse, when things seem dark, I look around and never far from me is someone to remind me who I'm fighting for.

Charlie

Look at Chip and Jay.

Zamia

So your power comes from people you care for too then.

Gillion

Well, actually, I don't t-. Looks like the teleport is turning on. Oh nooo.. Nooo. Only time for one big character moment right now and it's yours. Bye!

Grizzly

She says "Good luck" before Gillion becomes an Oathbreaker.

Gillion

Yeesh! Am I right?

Condi

Before everybody gets sent away, I look at Chip. I look towards Igneous.

Jay

I mean are you going to ask him to like join our crew or anything.

Grizzly

Igneous is now meeting Earl, Drey, and Finn. It's like this weird... I mean, they're sizing him up. They're looking at him and they're teasing him. He's obviously staying because he promised. He said, You know what? You get them out of here. Now, at first, he didn't even believe it, but since they're all going, he's here.

Bizly

Fuck yeah, Igneous, my dog.

Grizzly

With that the survivors of this island are teleported to your Keep in Canella and on the Albatross, again, since it feels like it's been a while, it's only been a few days, you start to sail down that little river that splits the two sections of the islands in half and came from the north, you're coming out from the south side. We will figure out where you're going on the next session. So that's we're going to end this one.

Bizly

Scouts out.

Charlie

Scouts out?

Condi

Scouts out.

Charlie

Scouts out.

Grizzly

Thank you, everybody, for watching. Bye-bye.

Bizly

Alright you know what time it is. It's the end of the episode. We got to give a huge shout-out to those $50 patrons, those High Roller patrons over at patron.com/justrollwithit. Let's get a huge shout-out to,
