What to know before coming the Barcelona?

Cost of living:

According to some sources, the estimated monthly costs for a single person in Barcelona are around €850 – €1,400 per month (see here).

Accommodation

Regarding the accommodation options available in Barcelona, the UB works with Barcelona Centre Universitari \(BCU\), an organization funded by and developed with collaboration of the Government of Catalonia, the Barcelona City Council and the Catalan universities, whose aim is that of facilitating all aspects of the non-academic life of the foreign university community, including different accommodation options.

Their accommodation service is called “Your Student Housing”, and is oriented towards temporary students/interns. You can contact them at the following email info@bcu.cat for any queries related to accommodation.

Also, we would like to remind you that it is important to use the official resources regarding accommodation to avoid potential scams. Note that, in case anything happens, we can only intervene in case the accommodation has been booked through these official providers.

Furthermore, the University of Barcelona is the only public university in Catalonia to operate its own halls of residence: (information on the halls in Spanish and Catalan)
