Order:

1. Start the event using the “event format” information

2. Inform them that it is a “Parkour training” and discuss what you are going over

3. Head to the Parkour area

-Discuss what you are going to be doing once there

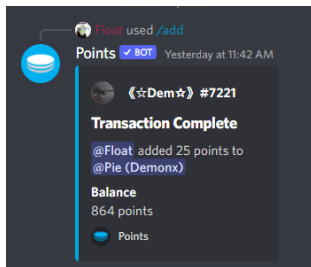

4. Make everyone line up on the white blocks

-You can have 1 person per block, or multiple per block, depending on how many people there are

5. Make each block start separately
-For example, once block 1 completes the first course, then the next block goes
6. Once everyone is finished, head back to the sub-event area
7. Once finished, take a picture and end the event with the “event format” information

8. -Give out points [25]

9. -State you have given out points, and follow the last procedures of the “event format”

10. Make sure to fill out the event in “Event Check”

Good job! You have officially done a parkour training event! Glory to the Mafia!
