Aanika P.

Tutor
San Antonio Math Include

Aanika was part of the class of 2023 at Basis San Antonio Shavano. She is a member of various clubs such as UIL Math and Science, Science Bowl, Latin club, and HOSA, and participates in many academic competitions. She enjoys tutoring and believes that as students ourselves, we should teach and inspire young kids, especially girls, to develop a love for math. She aspires to become a doctor or a researcher in the medical field. In her free time, she enjoys reading, watching Netflix, drawing, and listening to music. Aanika is Rice University Class of 2027.
