A well-prepared abstract enables the reader to identify the basic content of a document quickly and accurately, to determine its relevance to their interests, and thus to decide whether to read the document in its entirety. The Abstract should be informative and completely self-explanatory, provide a clear statement of the problem, the proposed approach or solution, and point out major findings and conclusions. The Abstract should be 150 to 250 words in length. The abstract should be written in the past tense. Standard nomenclature should be used and abbreviations should be avoided. No literature should be cited. The keyword list provides the opportunity to add keywords, used by the indexing and abstracting services, in addition to those already present in the title. Judicious use of keywords may increase the ease with which interested parties can locate our article.

1. INTRODUCTION

Introduction includes background, theoretical basis, problems, problem solving plans and research objectives. The introduction should also contain a Literature Review. The introduction is written using Cambria letters, size 10, space 1 and line spacing 1 cm. Text is typed in a print area with margins from top, bottom, left, right made 2.5cm. A4 paper size, 8.27-inch-wide, 11.69 inch high. Layout: 0.5-inch header, 0.5-inch footer. The text does not need to be page numbered. (Aditya Dharma, 2019; R. N. K. Rambe, 2018). We use the following heading and sub-headings

1. HEADING (Cambria, UPPERCASE, bold, 10 pts)

1.1 Sub-Heading 1 (Cambria, UPPERCASE first letters only, bold, 10 pts)

1.1.1 Sub-Heading 2 (Cambria, Italic, UPPERCASE first letters only, bold, 10 pts)

2. LITERATURE REVIEW

The literature review should review the recent literature, including both theretical and empirical reviews. Please review the variables, concepts, terms, etc. that are related to the research. Avoid using other than sub-heading 2.

2.1 Article Type

Articles are original articles of research results or review results from previous articles. Articles can be written in Indonesian or English. The number of pages of articles between 10 - 12 pages includes a list of references. The systematic writing of the research article consists of title, author's name, institution and correspondence address, abstract, keywords, abstract, keywords, introduction, methods, results and discussion, conclusions and suggestions, gratitude and reference list. (Aditya Dharma, 2019; R. N. K. Rambe, 2018). The systematic conceptual article writing (containing the results of the review) consists of the title, author's name, institution and correspondence address, abstract, keywords, abstract, keywords, introduction, core part, summary and list of references.

The title of the article is written using 16 size Cambria letters, capitalized, bold, Align Right, consisting of a maximum of 15 words and describing the contents of the manuscript. The author's name is written using the size 12 letters Cambria not accompanied by a title, the first name is abbreviated while the last name (surname) is not abbreviated. Names of authors from different agencies are marked using a superscript behind the name. Manuscripts are presented narratively (without numbering in front of subtitles) and presentation in the form of subtitles is avoided. The formula is written separately not in the sentence and equipped with numbering on the right. The formula is written using Microsoft equation.

$$x + y = 2 \quad (1)$$

The picture is inserted in the text box and the figure caption is placed below the image. The caption of the image is numbered and the image must be referred to in the text. Captions begin with uppercase letters. Captions of images with more than one line are written using line spacing 1. The image is drawn with a line width of 1pt and should have good contrast quality.
