#35) [50% saw version A] The Democratic candidate says we should guarantee health care to everyone as a right, not a privilege, through Medicare for All, which would transition every American from private insurance to a single government-run plan that would allow people to keep their doctor. The Republican candidate says the Affordable Care Act has caused premiums to skyrocket and that we should increase health care choice for individuals and protect patients with pre-existing conditions. Do these statements make you:

44	More likely to vote for the Democrat
49	More likely to vote for the Republican
8	No difference

#36) [50% saw version B] The Democratic candidate says we should provide high quality, affordable insurance to millions more Americans through a public option, which will allow Americans to buy a Medicare-like plan, while allowing people to keep their private insurance if they like it. The Republican candidate says the Affordable Care Act has caused premiums to skyrocket and that we should increase health care choice for individuals and protect patients with pre-existing conditions. Do these statements make you:

47	More likely to vote for the Democrat
47	More likely to vote for the Republican
6	No difference

#37) [50% saw version A] The Democratic candidate says that we should end Trump’s divisive immigration policies so that anyone who’s willing to come here, work hard, and contribute to our country is welcome. We have to stop allowing our government to separate children from their families, close the for-profit detention camps, and provide a pathway to citizenship for the millions of undocumented immigrants who already live and work in our communities.

The Republican candidate says illegal immigrants are taking American jobs and making America less safe, which is why we have to make our laws tougher and build a border wall. Do these statements make you:

50	More likely to vote for the Democrat
45	More likely to vote for the Republican
6	No difference

#38) [50% saw version B] The Democratic candidate says that we should end Trump’s racist and inhumane immigration policies, stop separating children from their families, and close the for-profit detention camps. We should provide a pathway to citizenship and health insurance to the millions of undocumented immigrants who already live and work in our communities, and repeal the law that makes it a criminal offense to cross the border without documentation. The Republican candidate says illegal immigrants are taking American jobs and making America less safe, which is why we have to make our laws tougher and build a border wall. Do these statements make you:

49	More likely to vote for the Democrat
45	More likely to vote for the Republican
6	No difference

#39) [50% saw version A] The Democratic candidate says that the dark history of slavery and government-sanctioned discrimination has undermined black families’ ability to build wealth for generations, and we must address it with systemic changes, including reparations. The Republican candidate says that the Trump administration has accomplished an incredible amount on racial inequality, with unemployment among African Americans and Latinos at record lows. Do these statements make you:

39	More likely to vote for the Democrat
47	More likely to vote for the Republican
14	No difference

#40) [50% saw version B] The Democratic candidate says that we must address racial inequality by investing in job creation and education, ending redlining and housing discrimination, and focusing federal resources on communities that need them most. #41) [50% saw version A] The Democratic candidate says that Donald Trump deserves to be impeached for using the powers of the presidency to enrich himself, target his political opponents, and pressure foreign governments into helping him win re-election and stay in power. The Republican candidate says that Democrats are engaged in a witch hunt against Donald Trump, who has done nothing wrong, and that they're still bitter over losing the election to him in 2016. Do these statements make you:

48	More likely to vote for the Democrat
45	More likely to vote for the Republican
7	No difference

#42) [50% saw version B] The Democratic candidate says that official White House documents show that Donald Trump used taxpayer-funded aid to pressure a foreign government into launching a phony investigation of his political opponents. In order to defend our democracy and ensure a free and fair election in 2020, Congress must hold the President accountable for this abuse of power, even if it means impeaching him. The Republican candidate says that Democrats are engaged in a witch hunt against Donald Trump, who has done nothing wrong, and that they're still
