Submit a proposal for a presentation that will explore the pivotal role of teaching and learning Social Studies in a changing world. Be part of one of the best Social Studies professional learning experiences in New York. We are accepting proposals for presentations and clinic workshops for these strands:

Strands:

1. Interdisciplinary Connections

- Cross-curriculum connections with English Language Arts
- Incorporating Art and Music into the Social Studies classroom
- Strategies for engaging the English as a New Language learner
- Connecting Social Studies with Science, Math, and Technology

2. Pedagogy and Methodology in Social Studies Classrooms

- Historical thinking and analysis
- Utilizing primary and secondary sources for critical thinking
- Engaging discussion and question techniques
- Increasing student engagement

3. The Changing Field of Social Studies

- Developing engaging technology-based lessons and activities
- Strategies for teaching Social Studies in a post-Covid World
- Approaching controversial issues in the classroom
- Teaching difficult histories during difficult times

4. Engaging Citizenship Education

- Exploring Human Rights
- Promoting Civic Readiness
- Implementing Global Citizenship and Global Education in the classroom
- Strategies for fostering Digital and Media literacy

We are planning for an in-person convention with sessions offered at the Crowne Plaza Albany. Submissions will be evaluated with this rubric. If you have questions about the program or proposals, please do not hesitate to reach out to Allison Weller, Convention Chair at vpmemberoutreach@nyscss.org. For questions
