AUTHOR

"The Captain's LOG" a (36) part series of articles about surviving and thriving at Burning Man. Written in a concise, and simple format, it appeals to the short attention span of today's social media generation. New topics are posted every week leading up to the burn in various related fb groups.

<http://orphanendorphin.com/reading.html>

These articles are used and referenced by hundreds of theme camps to acculturate their members. Additionally, thousands of "Burgins" rely on this pushed content to help them prepare for the burn.
