

Short list of Performer Dossier

Washer Well Wenches -

Washer Well Wenches are well recognized hilarious comedy show which utilizes historically based humor with physical comedy. These ladies arrive from all over the US to show case the hard work of laundress "since 1519" using audience participation and improve comedy in two stage performances daily. The Washer Well Wenches spend the remaining time during the festival interacting with the crowd and other performers and otherwise assisting in setting the tone of the festival.

The Mercenary of Insults -

The Mercenary hails from Western Kansas is a master at Shakespearean insults and for a fair price. His services can be bought and rendered upon unsuspecting friends.

The Irish Road Show -

Irish Road Show arrives out of Oklahoma is a one-man side show who have performed in multiple venues from Branson to Steampunk festivals to Renaissance Festivals. The Irish Road Show is led by a very kind and welcoming performer who is always on hand to give one on one performances, personalized shows, as well as assistance.

The Flint Hill Fairies -

Flint Hill Fairies are a traveling team out of Wichita consists of teachers who use both the love of literature and folklore to inspire creativity enchantment and imagination. They can be seen as mushroom, woodland sprites, or water nymphs. They can be seen roaming about the festival interacting with the public in story and activity.

Flow Foundry -

Flow Foundry specializes in aerial acrobats and performs continuously throughout the festival. The business originates in Wichita and has been with us for the past two years. They embody grace and strength and will absolutely dazzle the patron with their performances. One of the greatest features of Flow Foundry is the approach to positivity and encouragement. The company also actively encourages the young and old to give the hoops a try.

Elderwood Percussion -

True to nature of musicians from days of yore, Elderwood percussion brings a combination of traditional musical instruments to the modern populations while vocals accompany. Of course, all music is played without the use of electricity, but as they are also teachers – they encourage the audience to learn to play with them!

S.M.E.L.L U-

Welcome to Silliness, Mockery, Entertainment, Laughs & Libations University or S.M.E.L.L. U. Here children will learn about the history of Jesters from the Master of Morons themselves, Pester the Jester. With his Bachelors in Buffoonery, his Masters in Mockery, and his PHD in FUN (that's Finding Unique Novelties), Pester has a wide array of ridiculous knowledge to help teach hopeful young (and old!)

fools on their way to become fully fledged professional idiots! Each volunteer will graduate with a diploma from SMELL U

The Street Performers The Raven and Rally Jack

What are street performers? Ahh, only the most important part of any festival! These are the people that quietly and Boldy lead you from tale to tale. Perhaps it is Rally Jack who ushers in the main day parade. Or the Ravan who begins the story of day. These are the people who weave the lessons throughout the festival leading you from one land to the next. And we cannot wait to introduce two new street performers!

Iron Alliance -

Just a short trip up the road you can find warrior clad in heavy armor ready to demonstrate the prowess, cardiovascular endurance, and power of armored combat. Somewhere between athletics and strategy is this version of age-old skill. Whoever said knights in shining armor are long gone never meet these heroes! And while suited up for battle, they fight for a cause as a 501 C3 charitable organization. Each set they take helps keep history alive.

Fortress Dwellers (Bailey Family Ministry)

Somewhere deep in the forest resides a family of musicians who tunes can draw even the shyest person into their story. Be ready because when the Bailey family ministry begins to play the bagpipes and sing their song - it is as if the sirens beckon you into the dancing circle. Before you know it, you are hand and hand with a stranger, laughing and sharing in a shared community experience.

Mystic Sands Belly Dance

You never know what the music will bring: a fire ringed dance of ancient origins, a Viking influenced warriors dance. A whimsical arrangement of fans and chiffon – one never knows what style of dance these ladies will produce. Whatever you happen to see will be expertly arranged and magnificent!

