

North America

Introduction

North America has a population of 579 million. It is made up of 23 different countries including Mexico, Canada, and the United States of America. It is the 3rd largest continent behind Africa and Asia. This information report will discuss General Information, History and Sports.

General Information

History

Sports

Conclusion