

Helpful links for new 4-H volunteers

Volunteer resource center

The 4-H Volunteer Resource Center contains tools, materials and training for current 4-H volunteers. You can access the Volunteer Resource Center using this QR code or online at: z.umn.edu/4-HVolResourceCenter

Core skills training series

4-H volunteers are on the front lines of delivering positive youth development experiences to young people across the Minnesota 4-H program. This training series will equip you with core skills and competencies in your role as a 4-H volunteer. Visit <https://z.umn.edu/4-hvolunteerskills> to learn more.

Keeping youth safe

Minnesota 4-H is committed to providing safe and healthy environments that are free from discrimination for youth and adults participating in 4-H programs and activities. Our policies as well as planning tools for managing risk can be found at our Minnesota 4-H - Keeping youth safe website (z.umn.edu/4hyouthsafety) and on the Understanding 4-H Policies page (<https://extension.umn.edu/about-4-h/understanding-4-h-policies>).

Volunteer roles

There are a lot of opportunities to make your impact felt locally or across the state. You can learn more about the variety of roles that you may be interested to serve in as a MN 4-H volunteer using the QR code or online at z.umn.edu/mn4hvolunteerroles. Have a new role or program that you'd like to propose for our team? Pitch the idea to your local Extension Educator!

Leading a club website

Whether you are leading a chartered 4-H Club or organizing a group of youth for a one-time or seasonal program the Leading a Club website has valuable resources to support youth leadership, create engagement and deliver high quality educational programming! Use the QR code or visit our website at z.umn.edu/Leading4HClub

