Old Business

UMATILLA CHRISTMAS TOURNAMENT FEE – 2nd payment made. Balance $2,780.

UPDATE ON ASSAULT ON TED MCALLISTER – None

NEW BUSINESS

FRED E. ROZELLE SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD – No nominations at this time.

SCHOOL CONTRACTS – Currently each booking commissioner sends the contracts to the schools. Terry Lee made a motion that the individual contracts be reviewed by an attorney and draw up one contract for all sports which will legally protect the association. Richard Howard will submit the necessary information for Attorney Steve Rothenburg for review.

NEXT BOARD MEETING – Motion made by Richard Sullivan for board meetings to continue as zoom meetings for the remainder of the 2021-2022 season except for the Annual Business Meeting which will be in person. 2nd by Wade Clayton. Motion carried. 2nd by Richard Howard. Motion carried.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING – Will be held at North Marion High School on Saturday, April 23, 2022, in the Media Center. Registration begins at 8:30am and meeting will begin at 9am. Entrance will be on the east side of the school. Information is currently on Arbiter and email will be sent to all members.

FOOTBALL NEWS – Arbiter has emailed the 2022 Rule changes. Please review. As of this date, there are two spring games.

FLAG FOOTBALL NEWS – Reid Sergent stated Field Clinic was well attended. Transfer officials and a producing rookie has strengthen the roster. First two weeks of the season went well.

BASKETBALL NEWS – Congratulations to Darrin Williams, Kenyetta Jackson and Freddie Lucas on their Lakeland assignments. Also to Troy Newsome on his SIAA final. During the season the MFOA had 140 officials and 53 schools under contract.

BASEBALL NEWS and SOFTBALL NEWS – Playoff crews have been selected and approved. Richard Sullivan reports that the playoff games will be on the same dates which may cause an assignment problem. He will contact the state office.

WEB MASTER – Updates have been made.

INSPECTOR – All matters in the February board minutes have been addressed by the basketball booking commissioner, basketball directors and the inspector.

Motion to Adjourn – @ 5:13pm made by Richard Howard and 2nd by Terry Lee. Motion carried.

Next Zoom Board Meeting - Sunday, April 10, 2022 at 4pm.
