The ending song is not a real song, just something I made.

Lyrics:

Chad fucks, yeah that much is certain

But I don't want to know exactly what's behind the curtain

Although, they've been going at it since ten

I can hear it all and the house is a pig pen

Back off, I don't wanna have to fight dale

What is with the bite marks, why is all the skin pale

Oh shit, I've been bitten by the virgin

Guess I should be worried but I think I kinda like him
