Red River 48 Grand Forks Central 6

Honorary Bell Ringer representing RRHS: Bob Zimney
Offensive Players of the Game: Zach Murphy (GFC) | Derek Murph (RRHS)
Defensive Players of the Game: Aaron Knutson (GFC) | Zak Kuntz (RRHS)

Red River extended their current Cushman Classic streak to seven wins after a 48-6 win over the crosstown Knights on a rare Saturday afternoon game. The Roughriders scored twice in the first quarter and didn't look back on their way to 534 yards of total offense. Red River's Offensive Player of the Game, Derek Murph, finished with 247 yards passing by completing 19 of 21 attempts, including 4 passing touchdowns. In addition to anchoring a defense that only allowed 130 yards, Red River Defensive Player of the Game, Zak Kuntz, also contributed 106 rushing yards to the Rider offense.

The Knights offense was led by the efforts of Offensive Player of the Game, quarterback Zach Murphy, who accounted for 82 of Central's 130 total yards. Murphy punched in the lone Knight touchdown on a one yard run in the 4th quarter. Defensive end Aaron Knutson was named as Central's Defensive Player of the Game following his efforts against the strong Red River offensive showing.
