

Privacy Policy for Bulk PDF

*Effective Date: July 25, 2025

Bulk PDF is a Chrome extension designed to help users find and download PDF files from web pages.

We respect your privacy. This extension:

-  Does not collect or store any personal data.
-  Does not use cookies or trackers.
-  Does not access or transmit any user browsing history.
-  Only interacts with the currently active tab to detect downloadable PDF files.
-  Operates entirely within your browser, and does not send data to any external server.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, feel free to contact us at
