

Substance use Education Forum

Do you know the signs of substance use? Are you concerned your child may be at risk for using substances or is using substances?

This is an educational and intervention-based forum designed for parents to gain information on different substances, identify warning signs for use, and find ways to help their child.

Thursday, June 9, 2022

at 6:30pm

Sheehan High School Auditorium

Presented by Child Guidance Clinic for Central Connecticut in conjunction with Wallingford Public Schools