

EV, 73/F was admitted for observation following a fall while taking a bath. During hospitalization, she exhibited signs of mild dementia and was observed to be listless. A diagnosis of geriatric syndrome was made. She is being discharge in stable condition.

Past Medical History: She has controlled hypertension and is compliant with her medications

Personal and Social History: She worked as a teacher for 52 years and retired 8 years ago. She and her husband lives in a house with their daughter and her family. After retirement she prefers to stay at home to tend to her plants.