

Directions: 1) Synthesize the information from primary and secondary sources to determine the importance of an event (sourcing) 2) Write a headline that both describes the event and gives a historical perspective on the event 3) Write the lede underneath the event that explains what is important about this event 4) Explain why you chose this headline by describing and explaining evidence (supporting arguments)

Headline

Lede