Video 1					Chris Nodder has a very interesting concept and I would like to get familiar with this program, but is it free for students? He wants to make us students? He wants to make us familiar with the growing discipline in today's industry.
Video 2									You have to make the website navigation as easy as possible
									Using colors and shapes to he their long term memory when returning to the site.	lp
