

A 5-day immersive experience designed for coaches and creatives who are overflowing with ideas, half-built projects, and digital gold hidden in their Google Drives and on their Notes apps.

This is your time to pause, ground, and finally complete what's been waiting to emerge. Whether it's a course, poem, song, eBook, offering, or brand asset — this is where it all comes together.

You'll leave with clarity, completion, and an aligned plan to share your work with the world. You'll leave with a community that celebrates your completion, and accountability to see it through.

Who It's For

- Coaches, healers, writers, and artists who have unfinished creations (files, notes, courses, screenshots, journals, etc.)
- Creatives ready to monetize existing content and create passive income
- Those craving accountability, structure, and sisterhood to get it done
- Multi-passionate visionaries tired of their brilliance sitting in drafts

Retreat Intentions

- Gather all your scattered creations into one cohesive structure
- Finalize and launch (or plan launch) your next creative or digital offering
- Build systems and processes to support the ongoing organization
- Reconnect with your purpose behind the projects
- Move from creative chaos to embodied clarity

Structure & Flow

Each day blends productivity, embodiment, and creative integration.

Morning:

- Embodiment & movement
- Breakfast & grounding circle
- Morning work sprint (focused 2-hour session)

Afternoon:

- Co-working block (deep productivity)
- Daily breakthrough workshop/teaching
- Lunch
- One-on-one or group “project mapping” sessions

Evening:

- Mastermind + integration circle
- Communal dinner
- Fireside sharing, music, poetry, or creative expression
- Biohacking and wellness stations
