

Terms of Service

Thanks for being interested enough in commissioning me to read this document! First thing's first, this document is subject to change in the future, so please make sure to refer to this in the future in case anything has changed before you commission me!

1: Right to deny service

At any stage in the process I hold the right to deny or refuse service for any reason within Australian law. If this happens, I will refund the cost of the commission to the customer.

2: Turnaround

In general, I will strive to have your commission done within a month. If more than one month has passed since payment and the piece is still not complete, I am happy to offer a refund upon request.

Process

In general, the process is as follows:

1. Idea / Sketch phase: Commissioner and I will work on the idea together. At this stage the sketch is flexible, though please try to keep the amount of requested changes and redraws of the piece to a reasonable amount!
2. Payment: I will need a paypal email to send an invoice to. Do not send money to me directly please! Once payment is clear, we can move on to the next step.
3. Drawing: I will provide updates on the piece as it approaches completion. Tweaks at this stage should be pretty minor, and I will not be able to redraw the sketch or change the piece in significant ways at this stage.
4. Completion: I will present you with the final piece, and any small last minute changes, thank you for working with me!
