

Schedule for UX Consulting Hour

Fall 2023

Info

Every Wednesday from 9-10am MST (Arizona time)

Zoom link: <https://arizona.zoom.us/j/81902280912>

Details at: <https://uxua.arizona.edu/events/73-drop-ux-consulting-online>

Feel free (but not obligated) to contact the consultants in advance with details on your project.

If no one is signed up or doesn't drop in, we'll close the Zoom room 10-15 minutes after 9:00 am.

Schedule

Attendees, sign up below to book your time.

Date	Consultant(s)	Attendee signup #1 (9am)	Attendee signup #2 (9:30am)
Future schedule is in the works!

Consultant bios

Aly Higgins, content strategist at the University of Arizona Libraries, specializes in UX writing, content strategy, translating jargon into plain language, and transitioning from academia to a career in UX.

Jung Mee Park, data analyst at UITs Student and Academic Technologies, specializes in social science and UX research, academic writing, statistical analysis, and data visualization.

Ann Shivers-McNair, assistant professor and director of Professional and Technical Writing, specializes in qualitative UX research methods, UX writing, and technical writing.

Mario Vasquez, UX designer for the UITs:Trellis team, specializes in user interface design, user interactions, accessibility, design systems, and working on his qualitative UX research methods.

Bob Liu, UX strategist at University of Arizona Libraries, specializes in user interface and visual design, web analytics analysis, UX research planning, and accessibility review.

Nina Conrad, PhD in Second Language Acquisition & Teaching and former UX research intern with the University of Arizona Libraries, specializes in qualitative and mixed methods UX research, UX writing, UX self-study, and transitioning from academia to UX.

Tracker

For consultants only to track attendance and questions:

notion.so/uxua/03102449c2df454da694359f0c13d51b?v=466a4744c8224595bc8790ffb067d1ea