

Tribute Labs: Research and Community Associate

Tribute Labs is seeking a talented individual to join our team as we create and support a curated network of decentralized autonomous organizations (DAOs). We're passionate about revolutionizing online communities, and building truly autonomous DAOs using AI and other innovative tools. Our goal is to enable these groups to collaborate on investments and engage in rich dialogues seamlessly. At Tribute Labs, we are deeply committed to a vision where data-driven results guide our actions, ensuring that our strategies are always aligned with the evolving needs of our community.

With almost 600 unique members across all of the DAOs we support, Tribute Labs has helped support DAOs that span across different categories of the crypto ecosystem. Some of the largest DAOs in the space, including The LAO, Flamingo DAO, Neon DAO, Red DAO, Ready Player DAO, Noise DAO, Dark Horse DAO, Spaceship DAO, Unicorn DAO, Bright Opportunities DAO, Si DAO, Glimmer DAO, Beaker DAO, Punk DAO, Zero DAO, Labyrinth DAO and Metropolis DAO, are a part of our network.

We are seeking a Research and Community Associate that will be instrumental in bringing energy and vibes to many of the Tribute Labs supported DAOs.

The Role

We're looking for someone with a deep understanding of internet culture, DAOs, and community engagement. You should be someone who can not only capture, but also optimize digital attention as many DAO members are driven to join communities to engage in lively (yet casual) conversations about news, topics, crypto, markets, projects and more. This role is at the forefront of fostering a lighthearted and intellectually stimulating environment.

Who You Are:

- Extremely online: Deeply rooted interest in venture capital, art, finance, and internet culture (amongst a few topics) and always one of the first to discover news or trends. You also are involved, passionate or enjoy building online communities and naturally drive conversations across various platforms (especially Discord). You are also someone who loves to consume and curate news articles, tweets, podcasts, and other media and share it with other people.
- Highly communicative: Strongly skilled at cross-team communication, and adept at facilitating discussions and extracting relevant details.
- Character: You bring conviction, confidence, and a unique perspective to the table. You're eager to make a difference and approach tasks with a light-hearted spirit.
- Organized: : Self-motivated, capable and focused, with the ability to prioritize tasks effectively and collaborate with other team members to determine priorities.

We're looking for a Research and Community Associate to join to our team who will:

- Proactively engage with DAO members in Discord to foster vibrant conversations and sense of community, while keeping up with the latest trends and news, and disseminating information across DAOs based on their respective focuses.
- Work closely with DAO Operational Leads to maintain the overall health of each DAO community.
- Attend DAO calls/relevant calls or events in an effort to stay on top of trends.
- Propose and implement creative strategies to drive community with members across various communities.

Compensation and Benefits

We reflect our commitment to our team in the compensation package for this role. We pay competitive annual salaries, offer full benefits, including medical, dental, vision, 401k, and have a flexible vacation policy.

Our team is primarily based in the U.S., Switzerland, Brazil, and the U.K., and are currently only considering candidates based between EST (UTC-8) and ICT (UTC+2). This role is fully remote, but you should be willing to attend in-person team offsites (no more than 2x a year).

Interested candidates please email resume and other relevant information (socials, etc.) to jobs@tributelabs.xyz.
