Game Highlights/Comments

Nicholson Dominates on the Mound as Osage Blanks Dixon 10–0

The Osage Varsity Indians put together a complete performance Monday evening, shutting out the Dixon Bulldogs 10–0 behind a commanding pitching outing from Christopher Nicholson and a relentless offensive effort led by Hayden Helton and Tucker Willoughby.

Nicholson was nearly untouchable on the mound, striking out 12 batters and allowing just one hit across six innings of shutout baseball.

Helton sparked the Indians' offense from the leadoff spot, going 3-for-4 with three runs scored and two RBI.. Nicholson helped his own cause with a 3-hit game, scoring twice and driving in three runs.

Osage jumped ahead early, scoring three runs in the first inning thanks to back-to-back doubles from Tucker Willoughby and Nick Dulle. They added another in the third when Ottens scored on Nicholson's groundout, and steadily widened the gap with multi-run innings in the fifth and sixth.

By game's end, Osage had out-hit Dixon 12–1 and capitalized on several Bulldog errors to seal the run-rule victory after six innings.
