

SIM Idol Agency

A modded challenge in 7 weeks (or more !) for the sims 4. Created by Bittermochi

Description of the challenge :

This challenge requires City living and Get Famous. If you want to play it to the fullest, I highly recommend getting Frank's Language Barrier Mod, Road to Fame, SNBank (during the Idol stage, to transfer money back to the agency) and MCCC (to cheat skill points if you use RTF). You can use any other mod and CC you want, as long as it's not overpowered skill and money-wise. This challenge is calibrated for a normal lifespan, but you can adjust the lifespan with MCCC if you need it to be longer. You can also play on long lifespan, but it could become boring and less challenging.

Challenge must start on Monday. You will form a household with 7 teens, either from already played sims, your neighborhood or from CAS. There will be a Manager. It must be an adult or young adult of the same gender as the trainees but aside from that, you can pick whoever you want! They will work in public relations (Social Media Career) and will need to cook, parent and maintain the facilities if they cannot afford a repairman or a maid, so proficiency in cooking, parenting and handiness is required. Ideally they will be qualified enough to mentor sims in some skills.

The challenge takes place in 4 successive steps : Audition Bootcamp, Part-time Trainee, Full Time Trainee and Idol. You can take new trainees in on every/any Monday. I suggest using a color-coded generation system with color-coded outfits to keep track of everyone so you don't become overwhelmed.

Suggestion for generations inspired by the Not so berry challenge :

FIRST GENERATION	SECOND GENERATION	THIRD GENERATION	FOURTH GENERATION	FIFTH GENERATION
Concept: Quirky & Preppy	Concept : Hot and charismatic	Concept : Space / Astrology	Concept : Nostalgic Chic	Concept : Globe-trotters

Audition Bootcamp

The audition Bootcamp lasts 3 days. Idols must work on their skills to reach the required level and pass the audition. If they do, they become Part-time trainees. They also need to study hard for the next step as they will need to graduate early to become Full time Trainees!

Optional Housing requirements : Candidates for audition live together in a single dorm room with cheap bunk beds.

Candidates who don't meet the requirements to become a Full-time Trainee will have to leave the household.

Part-time Trainee

Part-time Trainees now have one week and half (until Sunday, week two) to meet the requirements to become a full time Idol. They will need to work on their stage skills but also on their acting, fitness and media production skills, and don't forget foreign languages!

Optional Housing requirements : Part time trainees are now allowed to move to a smaller dorm to get more privacy, but you still have to use bunk beds!

Trainees who don't meet the requirements to become a Part-time Trainee will have to leave the household.

Full-time Trainee

Full time Trainees are now fully dedicated to their training, and have until they become young adults to master singing, dancing, charisma and Komorebigo! They will also need to reach a high level in all the skills they have studied. They should try to write their own songs and make a few videos for social media, they take a long time to write and they will need to bring cash in as soon as they become Idols !

Optional Housing requirements : Part time trainees are now allowed to have normal single beds in a shared (or not) bedroom.

Trainees who don't meet the requirements to become an Idol will have to leave the household.

Idol

Your trainees achieved the impossible and are now real Idols! They reached an incredible level in stage skills and will be able to work in any entertainment-related field they wish... But they will have to pay the agency back for their training. They also need to bring in enough money to get the right to stay with their agency!

Idols can choose to make money in any way they want, but it must be entertainment related. They are also allowed to study at university, but this will be extremely difficult to manage unless you have a mod to shorten university degrees. I don't recommend it.

Optional Housing requirements : Idols contracts allow them to have their own private bedrooms, and they can furnish it however they want, including double beds if they want to.

Idols have four weeks after they were excluded to pay the training fees (use money cheat or SNB mod to delete/transfer money).

If they are excluded (and if you decide to switch to their household), they will need to wait one week for their non-competition clause to expire before finding an entertainment-related career. They can make money in any other way.

Idols can't stay in the agency after they become adults, unless they become managers!
