SL: Why the school nerds get an F in life

We all remember that bucktooth, sniffing snitch who would get an A on every test,

The teacher would always say he would go far and succeed, but how true is she?

She was once a nerd herself, of course, she's wrong!

Nerds will never live life to their fullest capabilities because they lack 3 skills.

1. Independent thinking: Nerds cannot think for themselves they would rather bum-lick the teacher and consume information.
2. Social skills: How is anyone going to have a network that can push them ahead if they have their head stuck in a book?
3. Work ethic: There is a difference between the work ethic of a nerd and a jock. A nerd will do the required tasks in a set time. On the other hand, a Jock will push further and further until sweat is dripping and muscles are stretching.

I don't want to become a nerd and neither should you

We have conducted studies on 30 hyper-successful men and women.

Now you know what the unworthy nerds do, it's time you meet the chads and chadettes

Kind regards

The king of chads
