

SEE MY "ABOUT ME" PINTEREST BOARD HERE

You found my intro. Hi.

Elle. 20+. GMT. I'm a long-term roleplayer and I will literally send you memes and HCs one hour after we start talking because I'm both stupid and unhinged. I have disorders which impact my memory & concentration and I struggle with taking hints, so if you want something in particular out of our plots let me know because I won't guess it.

THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS:

- I don't have TWs. I do my best to always be respectful but I also like daker-ish topics so if you have many TWs we probably won't mesh.
- Communication is key. If you want to write with me, please meet me halfway. I love bouncing ideas off my partners, talking about what if scenarios and aus. I don't expect us to chat daily but I do expect you to match my enthusiasm! And if there's something in our plot that you don't agree with, please tell me.
- Please softblock me if you're not interested in writing with me. It's a time, and potential embarrassment, saver.
- I want to explore people being people. I love exploring regret and ugly feelings and stupid decisions. I love flawed characters. I love conflicted characters. I love exploring kindness and compassion. I love characters who are many things at once.

FAVOURITE VIBES:

1. All things angst and nuanced. Seriously. I love plots that explore complex subjects and that are filled with depth but also where we can have a ton of fluff... even if it's only in AUs.
2. First wizarding war plots (Fuck JKR and her rhetoric, by the way.)
3. Horror-centred plots (haunting of hill house, IT, stranger things, etc)
4. Historical plots, my beloved.
5. Plots set in the hunger games universe
6. Attack on titan plots (I've only watched a couple eps but I know what the twist is. I also know the show is controversial. I still enjoy the premise and would love to explore it with depth and respect).
7. Opposites attract
8. Friends to lovers
9. Friends to enemies
10. Memory loss plots
11. Memory manipulation
12. Dorcas x lawful good hit wizard who doesn't know she's a member of the order
13. Dorcas x muggle
14. AU where Dorcas is the most loyal Death Eater
15. AU where Dorcas survives the first wizarding war

BANNED:

PWP, fluff w/o angst, ridiculously long threads, hadids, jenners, singers, wwe faces, generally anyone made popular by disney.

DORCAS' MAIN VERSE QUICK INTRO:

Detailed verseless bio on page 2.

- ❖ If she were inclined to such things, Dorcas could easily get away with murder. You probably would never believe this and that's half of the reason why she'd get away with it. Other factors include her impish and low-key manipulative nature, and ability not to be perceived as a threat.
- ❖ Daughter of a muggle lawyer/diplomat and a pureblood nurse who met in Iran. Has a sister (7 years older than her) and a brother (5 years older than her). All the siblings have strong personalities but as the youngest Dorcas always felt like it was her role to mediate and keep the peace.
- ❖ Hufflepuff alumna. As a young teenager often ended up in detention because: "I have no regrets about jinxing them, their behaviour was rude and unfair." As she grew out of teenage impulsiveness and into her wits and more diplomatic nature, she hardly got any detention.. She still threw jinxes though, she was just smarter about it.
- ❖ Joined a ministry summer program for students at 17, and when she graduated she was somewhat influenced to join the Ministry and train as an Obliviator. She wanted to quit early on because many things about the job didn't sit right with her, but ended up staying for 6 years until working at the increasingly corrupt ministry became unbearable.
- ❖ At 24 she started her training as a healer at St. Mungos. At 31 the Order needed trusted eyes and ears inside the ministry, so she applied for a job as a training Unspeakable and bullshitted her way through the hiring process: "i know it's a training position and i have experience but i don't mind. this is what i always wanted, i just needed time to realise it, working at mungo's gave me that clarity. life is too short not to chase our dreams."
- ❖ She fucking hates being an Unspeakable.
