A few days after the hearing, a transcript of the hearing and copies of the written comments will be available to the public at OCECM.

What authorizes OCECM to make this rule? Section 1043 of the City Charter, Local Law 8 of 2021, as well as Executive Orders No. 100 and No. 105 of 2007 authorize OCECM to make this proposed rule. This proposed rule was not included in OCECM's regulatory agenda for this Fiscal Year because it was not contemplated when OCECM published the agenda.

Where can I find the OCECM rules? The OCECM rules are in title 50 of the Rules of the City of New York.

What rules govern the rulemaking process? OCECM must meet the requirements of Section 1043 of the City Charter when creating or changing rules. This notice is made according to the requirements of Section 1043 of the City Charter.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Proposed Rule

The Office of Citywide Events Coordination and Management (OCECM), Street Activity Permit Office (SAPO) administers New York City's permit system for street activities, block parties and fairs.

Each year prior to 2020, the first year of the COVID emergency, SAPO has issued permits to over 200 street fairs and over 5,000 other events, most of which include the use of multiple blocks over several days, the erection of structures, the vending of food, apparel and other goods and the use of amplified sound and the performance of music. Events like these require additional police officers which increases overtime costs to the City. These events also divert police officers from core crime fighting, public safety and counter terrorism duties.

To more effectively deploy police resources and control overtime costs, the New York City Police Department has recommended that SAPO exercise its discretion to deny permit applications for new events in calendar year 2022. The proposed rules will authorize SAPO to deny permit applications for street fairs if the street fair was not held in the calendar year 2019. Events that received permits in calendar year 2019 will be eligible to receive permits again in calendar year 2022.

In addition, Local Law No. 8 of 2021 directed the Mayor's Office of Citywide Events Coordination and Management (OCECM) to establish an Open Culture program, pursuant to which an eligible art and cultural institution or cultural venue may utilize an open space for an artistic or cultural event. The law mandated that the program was to remain in effect until October 31, 2021, or until such later date as the office shall determine; provided, however, that the program could not remain in effect after March 31, 2022.

This proposed rule will enable the Open Culture program to continue after October 31, 2021, until March 31, 2022, and allow the Street Activity Permit Office (SAPO) within OCECM to issue street activity permits for this program in accordance with Local Law No. 8 of 2021.

OCECM authority for these rules is found in section 1043 of the New York City Charter, Local Law 8 of 2021, and Executive Order Nos. 100 and 105 of 2007.

New material is underlined.

[Deleted material is in brackets.]

“Shall” and “must” denote mandatory requirements and may be used interchangeably in the rules of this department, unless otherwise specified or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

§ 1. Subdivision (i) of Section 1-03 of Chapter 1 of Title 50 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

- (i) ____ For Open Culture Events, the Director of SAPO may establish guidelines that restrict certain event elements, as well as activities that would require additional agency permits. Unless otherwise provided by law, the Open Culture program shall remain in effect until March 31, 2022, and the final application deadline for any Open Culture event shall be March 16, 2022.

§ 2. Subdivision (d) of Section 1-05 of Chapter 1 of Title 50 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(d) For the calendar year [2021] 2022, the Director shall deny applications for street activity permits for street fairs not held in the calendar year 2019.
