

I am currently the longest serving member of the Executive, despite also being the second youngest. I would be pleased to continue to serve and provide valuable continuity, and look forward to transitioning out of the role of President, which I have filled for the last 8 years. I have been happy to see renewal of the executive over the past few years, as the demographics and the interests of our membership shift, and am looking forward to seeing how that continues to evolve.